

State and Territory ARP Child Care Stabilization Fact Sheet

ADMINISTRATION FOR
CHILDREN & FAMILIES

 Office of Child Care

Alabama ARP Child Care Stabilization Fact Sheet

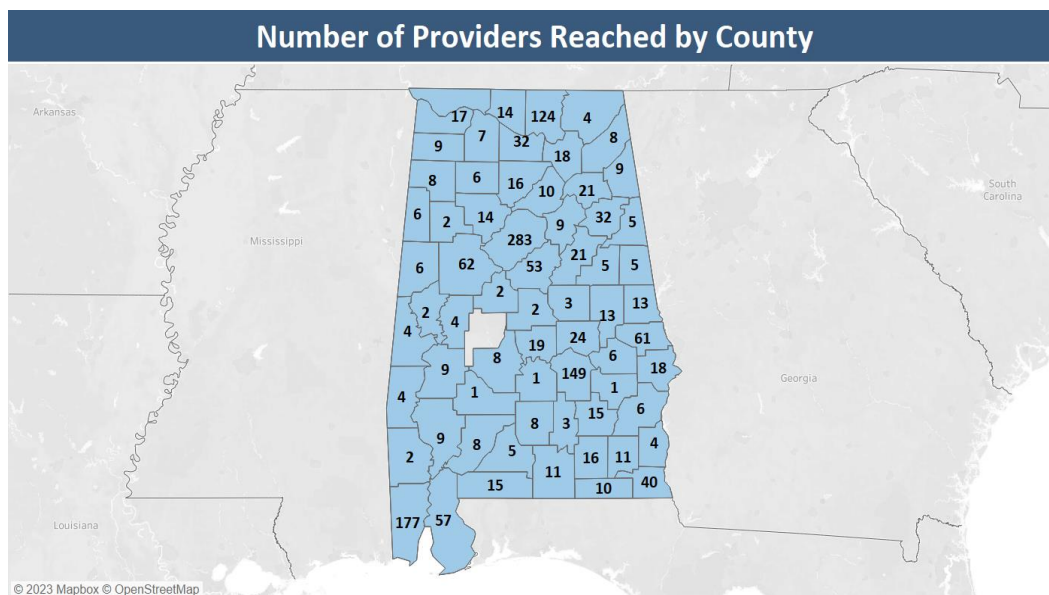

1,565 Child Care Programs in Alabama have Received American Rescue Plan Stabilization Support, Impacting up to 91,200 Children

ARP's historic investment provided Alabama with $451.4 million for their Child Care Stabilization program. The program has been critical to helping child care centers and family child care providers nationwide remain open or reopen, keeping child care workers on the payroll, and ensuring families have reliable options for high quality care while they work. Child care programs are mostly small businesses and are essential for families, communities, and the economy.

The ARP Child Care Stabilization program has been an unprecedented lifeline for the child care sector that helped parents return to work and spurred economic recovery. So far, more than 220,000 child care programs serving as many as 9.6 million children have received assistance across the country from this program.

In Alabama:

- Providers in 99% of Alabama counties have received funds.
- 1,065 child care centers that received stabilization payments most commonly used them to pay for personnel costs and keep programs staffed.
- 505 child care family homes that received stabilization payments most commonly used them to pay for personnel costs and keep programs staffed.

County total may not sum to the state total due to rounding.

AL's center and family child care data included a small number of duplicate counts, so do not sum to the correct total.

ACF-901 data through December 31, 2022.

Alaska ARP Child Care Stabilization Fact Sheet

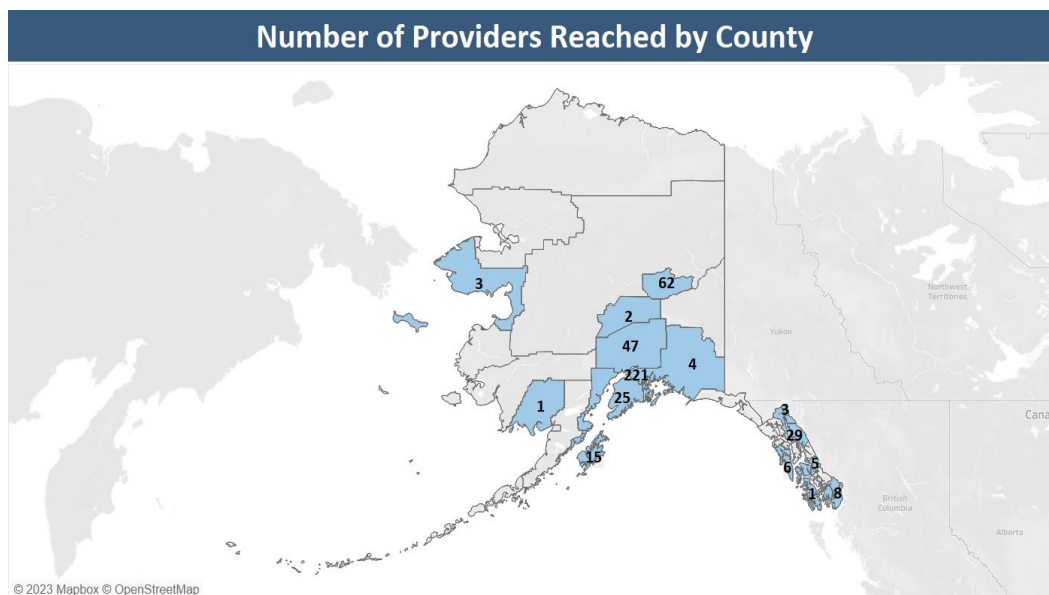

430 Child Care Programs in Alaska have Received American Rescue Plan Stabilization Support, Impacting up to 16,400 Children

ARP's historic investment provided Alaska with $45.3 million for their Child Care Stabilization program. The program has been critical to helping child care centers and family child care providers nationwide remain open or reopen, keeping child care workers on the payroll, and ensuring families have reliable options for high quality care while they work. Child care programs are mostly small businesses and are essential for families, communities, and the economy.

The ARP Child Care Stabilization program has been an unprecedented lifeline for the child care sector that helped parents return to work and spurred economic recovery. So far, more than 220,000 child care programs serving as many as 9.6 million children have received assistance across the country from this program.

In Alaska:

- Providers in 55% of Alaska counties have received funds.
- 215 child care centers that received stabilization payments most commonly used them to pay for personnel costs and keep programs staffed.
- 225 child care family homes that received stabilization payments most commonly used them to pay for rent and mortgage payments, typically their largest operating expense.

County total may not sum to the state total due to rounding.

AK's center and family child care data included a small number of duplicate counts, so do not sum to the correct total.

ACF-901 data through December 31, 2022.

ADMINISTRATION FOR
CHILDREN & FAMILIES

Office of Child Care

Arizona ARP Child Care Stabilization Fact Sheet

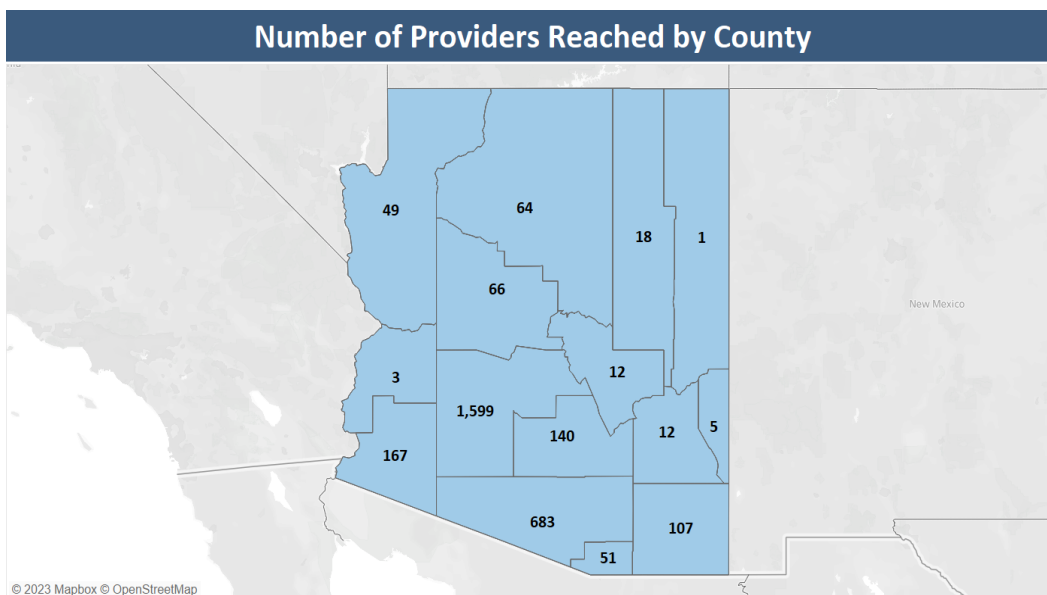

2,970 Child Care Programs in Arizona have Received American Rescue Plan Stabilization Support, Impacting up to 257,600 Children

ARP's historic investment provided Arizona with $596.4 million for their Child Care Stabilization program. The program has been critical to helping child care centers and family child care providers nationwide remain open or reopen, keeping child care workers on the payroll, and ensuring families have reliable options for high quality care while they work. Child care programs are mostly small businesses and are essential for families, communities, and the economy.

The ARP Child Care Stabilization program has been an unprecedented lifeline for the child care sector that helped parents return to work and spurred economic recovery. So far, more than 220,000 child care programs serving as many as 9.6 million children have received assistance across the country from this program.

In Arizona:

- Providers in 100% of Arizona counties have received funds.
- 1,995 child care centers that received stabilization payments most commonly used them to pay for personnel costs and keep programs staffed.
- 975 child care family homes that received stabilization payments most commonly used them to pay for rent and mortgage payments, typically their largest operating expense.

County total may not sum to the state total due to rounding.
ACF-901 data through December 31, 2022.

ADMINISTRATION FOR
CHILDREN & FAMILIES

 Office of Child Care

Arkansas ARP Child Care Stabilization Fact Sheet

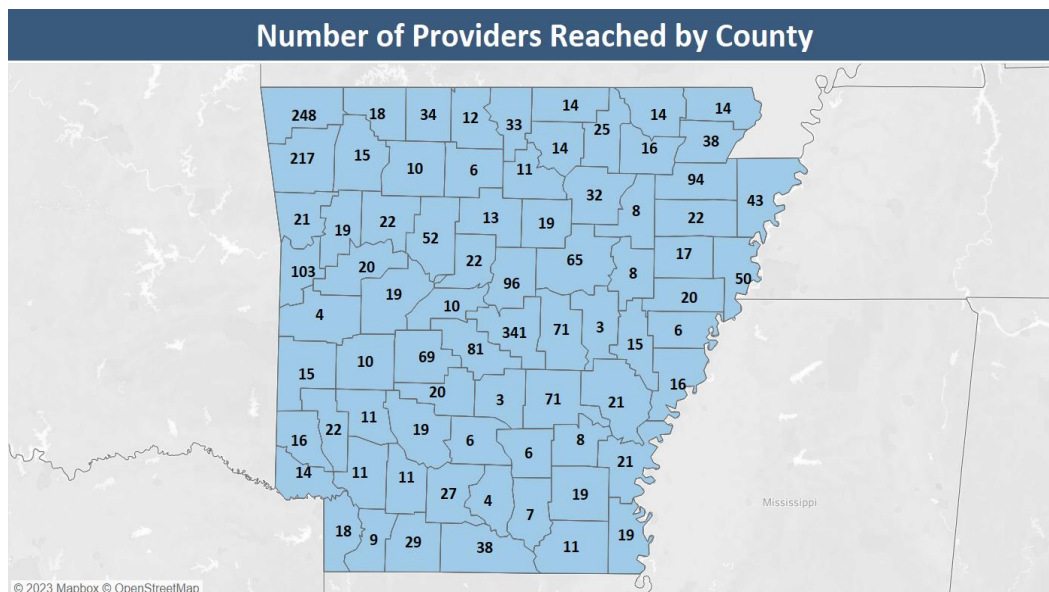

2,585 Child Care Programs in Arkansas have Received American Rescue Plan Stabilization Support, Impacting up to 235,700 Children

ARP's historic investment provided Arkansas with $286.1 million for their Child Care Stabilization program. The program has been critical to helping child care centers and family child care providers nationwide remain open or reopen, keeping child care workers on the payroll, and ensuring families have reliable options for high quality care while they work. Child care programs are mostly small businesses and are essential for families, communities, and the economy.

The ARP Child Care Stabilization program has been an unprecedented lifeline for the child care sector that helped parents return to work and spurred economic recovery. So far, more than 220,000 child care programs serving as many as 9.6 million children have received assistance across the country from this program.

In Arkansas:

- Providers in 100% of Arkansas counties have received funds.
- 2,300 child care centers that received stabilization payments most commonly used them to pay for goods and services necessary to operate the program.
- 285 child care family homes that received stabilization payments most commonly used them to pay for goods and services necessary to operate the program.
- On average, child care centers have received an award of $97,800 and family homes have received $29,100.

County total may not sum to the state total due to rounding.

ACF-901 data through December 31, 2022.

California ARP Child Care Stabilization Fact Sheet

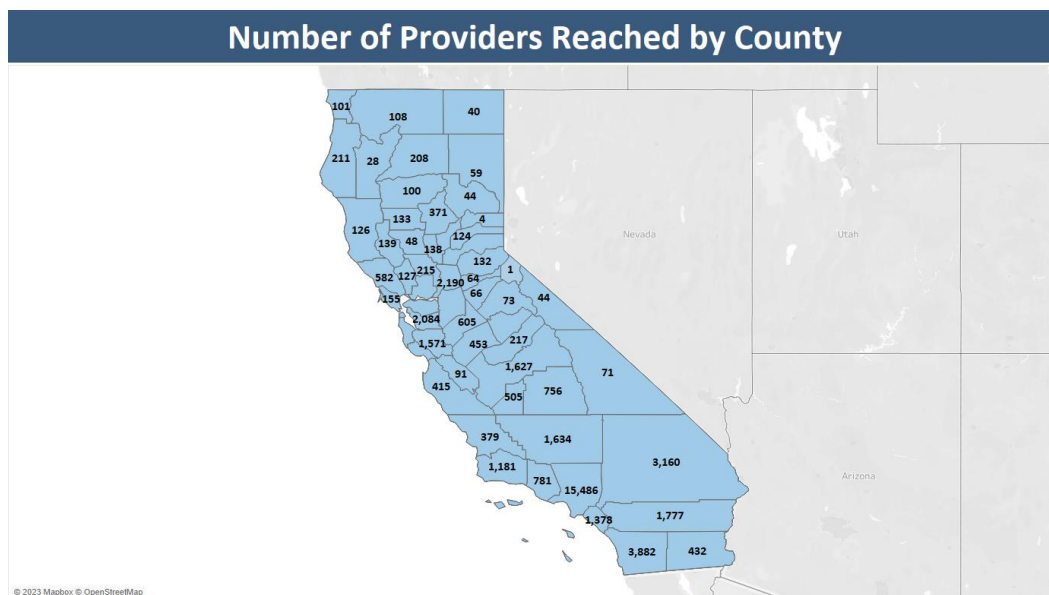

50,115 Child Care Programs in California have Received American Rescue Plan Stabilization Support, Impacting up to 311,500 Children

ARP's historic investment provided California with $2.3 billion for their Child Care Stabilization program. The program has been critical to helping child care centers and family child care providers nationwide remain open or reopen, keeping child care workers on the payroll, and ensuring families have reliable options for high quality care while they work. Child care programs are mostly small businesses and are essential for families, communities, and the economy.

The ARP Child Care Stabilization program has been an unprecedented lifeline for the child care sector that helped parents return to work and spurred economic recovery. So far, more than 220,000 child care programs serving as many as 9.6 million children have received assistance across the country from this program.

In California:

- Providers in 100% of California counties have received funds.
- 4,510 child care centers that received stabilization payments most commonly used them to pay for personnel costs and keep programs staffed.
- 45,605 child care family homes that received stabilization payments most commonly used them to pay for rent and mortgage payments, typically their largest operating expense.

County total may not sum to the state total due to rounding.

Note: Includes a combination of ACF-901 and ACF-801 data as of December 31, 2022.

Colorado ARP Child Care Stabilization Fact Sheet

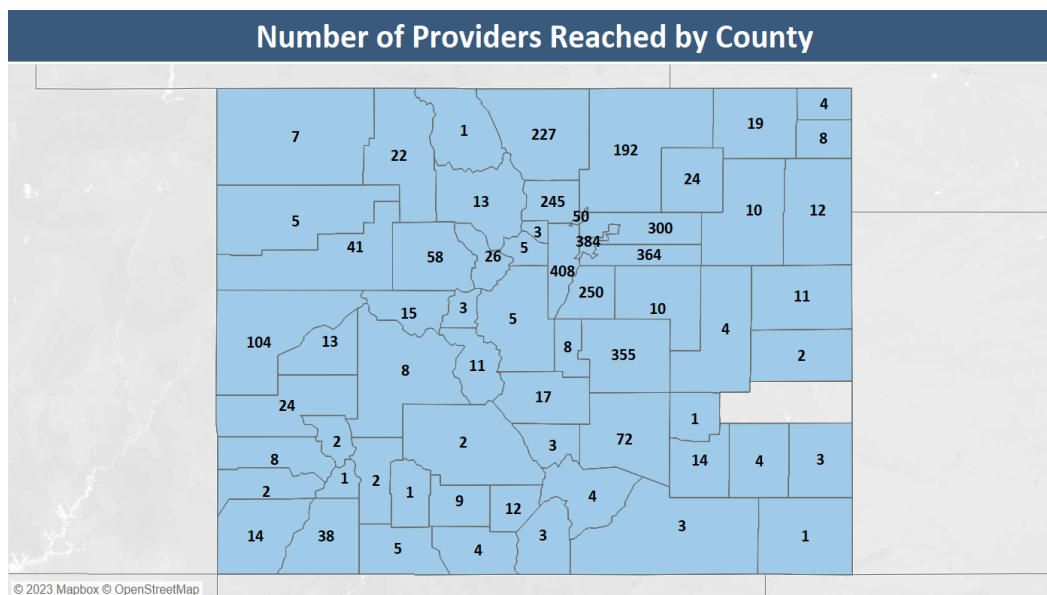

3,475 Child Care Programs in Colorado have Received American Rescue Plan Stabilization Support, Impacting up to 265,700 Children

ARP's historic investment provided Colorado with $286.2 million for their Child Care Stabilization program. The program has been critical to helping child care centers and family child care providers nationwide remain open or reopen, keeping child care workers on the payroll, and ensuring families have reliable options for high quality care while they work. Child care programs are mostly small businesses and are essential for families, communities, and the economy.

The ARP Child Care Stabilization program has been an unprecedented lifeline for the child care sector that helped parents return to work and spurred economic recovery. So far, more than 220,000 child care programs serving as many as 9.6 million children have received assistance across the country from this program.

In Colorado:

- Providers in 98% of Colorado counties have received funds.
- 2,410 child care centers that received stabilization payments most commonly used them to pay for personnel costs and keep programs staffed.
- 1,065 child care family homes that received stabilization payments most commonly used them to pay for rent and mortgage payments, typically their largest operating expense.

County total may not sum to the state total due to rounding.
ACF-901 data through June 30, 2022.

ADMINISTRATION FOR
CHILDREN & FAMILIES

 Office of Child Care

Connecticut ARP Child Care Stabilization Fact Sheet

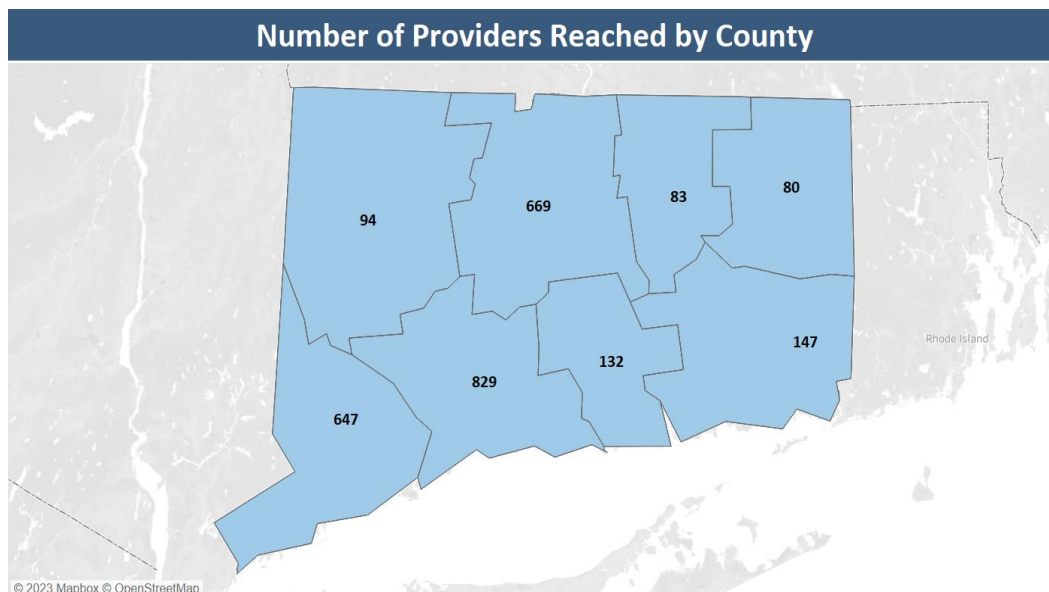

2,575 Child Care Programs in Connecticut have Received American Rescue Plan Stabilization Support, Impacting up to 104,900 Children

ARP's historic investment provided Connecticut with $169.9 million for their Child Care Stabilization program. The program has been critical to helping child care centers and family child care providers nationwide remain open or reopen, keeping child care workers on the payroll, and ensuring families have reliable options for high quality care while they work. Child care programs are mostly small businesses and are essential for families, communities, and the economy.

The ARP Child Care Stabilization program has been an unprecedented lifeline for the child care sector that helped parents return to work and spurred economic recovery. So far, more than 220,000 child care programs serving as many as 9.6 million children have received assistance across the country from this program.

In Connecticut:

- Providers in 100% of Connecticut counties have received funds.
- 1,265 child care centers that received stabilization payments most commonly used them to pay for personnel costs and keep programs staffed.
- 1,360 child care family homes that received stabilization payments most commonly used them to pay for rent and mortgage payments, typically their largest operating expense.
- On average, child care centers have received an award of $85,300 and family homes have received $10,300.

County total may not sum to the state total due to rounding.

CT's center and family child care data included a small number of duplicate counts, so do not sum to the correct total.

ACF-901 data through June 30, 2022.

Delaware ARP Child Care Stabilization Fact Sheet

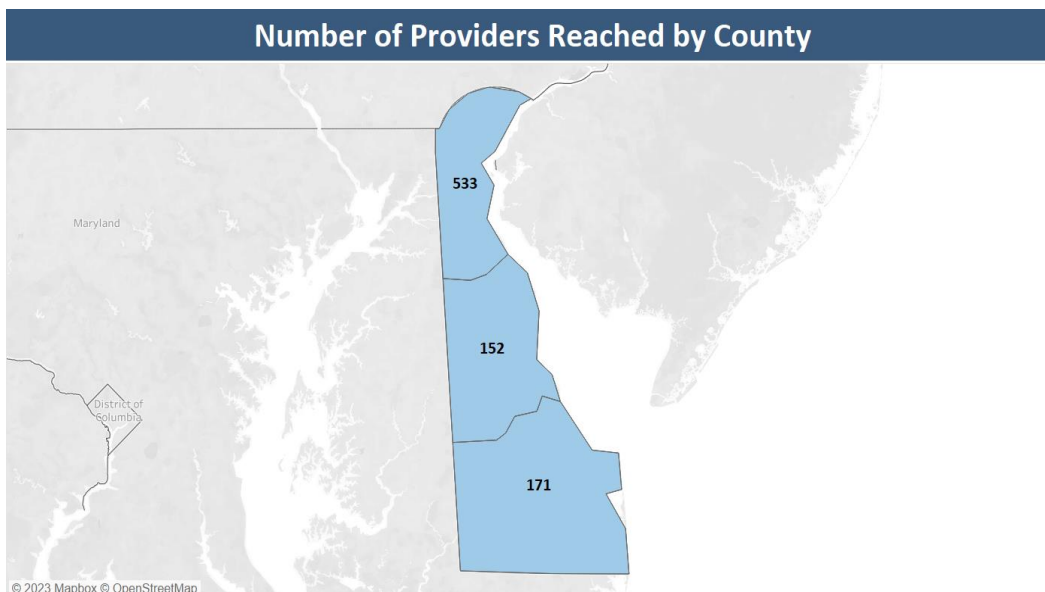

855 Child Care Programs in Delaware have Received American Rescue Plan Stabilization Support, Impacting up to 44,500 Children

ARP's historic investment provided Delaware with $66.8 million for their Child Care Stabilization program. The program has been critical to helping child care centers and family child care providers nationwide remain open or reopen, keeping child care workers on the payroll, and ensuring families have reliable options for high quality care while they work. Child care programs are mostly small businesses and are essential for families, communities, and the economy.

The ARP Child Care Stabilization program has been an unprecedented lifeline for the child care sector that helped parents return to work and spurred economic recovery. So far, more than 220,000 child care programs serving as many as 9.6 million children have received assistance across the country from this program.

In Delaware:

- Providers in 100% of Delaware counties have received funds.
- 385 child care centers that received stabilization payments most commonly used them to pay for personnel costs and keep programs staffed.
- 470 child care family homes that received stabilization payments most commonly used them to pay for personnel costs and keep programs staffed.
- On average, child care centers have received an award of $128,400 and family homes have received $37,300.

County total may not sum to the state total due to rounding.

ACF-901 data through December 31, 2022.

ADMINISTRATION FOR
CHILDREN & FAMILIES

 Office of Child Care

District of Columbia ARP Child Care Stabilization Fact Sheet

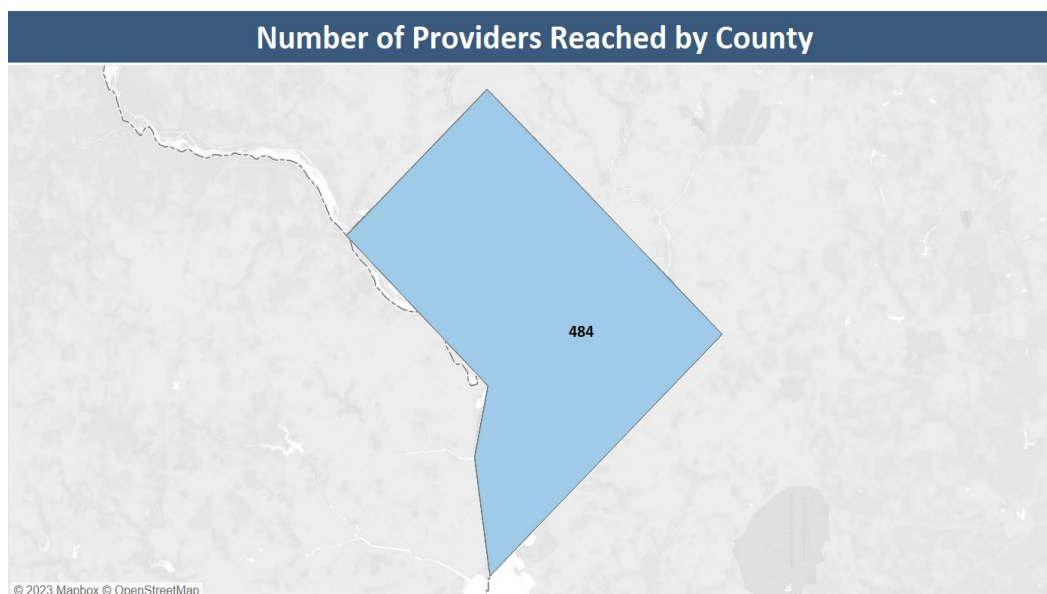

485 Child Care Programs in District of Columbia have Received American Rescue Plan Stabilization Support, Impacting up to 23,800 Children

ARP's historic investment provided District of Columbia with $39.8 million for their Child Care Stabilization program. The program has been critical to helping child care centers and family child care providers nationwide remain open or reopen, keeping child care workers on the payroll, and ensuring families have reliable options for high quality care while they work. Child care programs are mostly small businesses and are essential for families, communities, and the economy.

The ARP Child Care Stabilization program has been an unprecedented lifeline for the child care sector that helped parents return to work and spurred economic recovery. So far, more than 220,000 child care programs serving as many as 9.6 million children have received assistance across the country from this program.

In District of Columbia:

- Providers in 100% of District of Columbia counties have received funds.
- 335 child care centers that received stabilization payments most commonly used them to pay for personnel costs and keep programs staffed.
- 155 child care family homes that received stabilization payments most commonly used them to pay for goods and services necessary to operate the program.
- On average, child care centers have received an award of $108,100 and family homes have received $8,000.

County total may not sum to the state total due to rounding.

DC's center and family child care data included a small number of duplicate counts, so do not sum to the correct total.

ACF-901 data through December 31, 2022.

ADMINISTRATION FOR
CHILDREN & FAMILIES

 Office of Child Care

Florida ARP Child Care Stabilization Fact Sheet

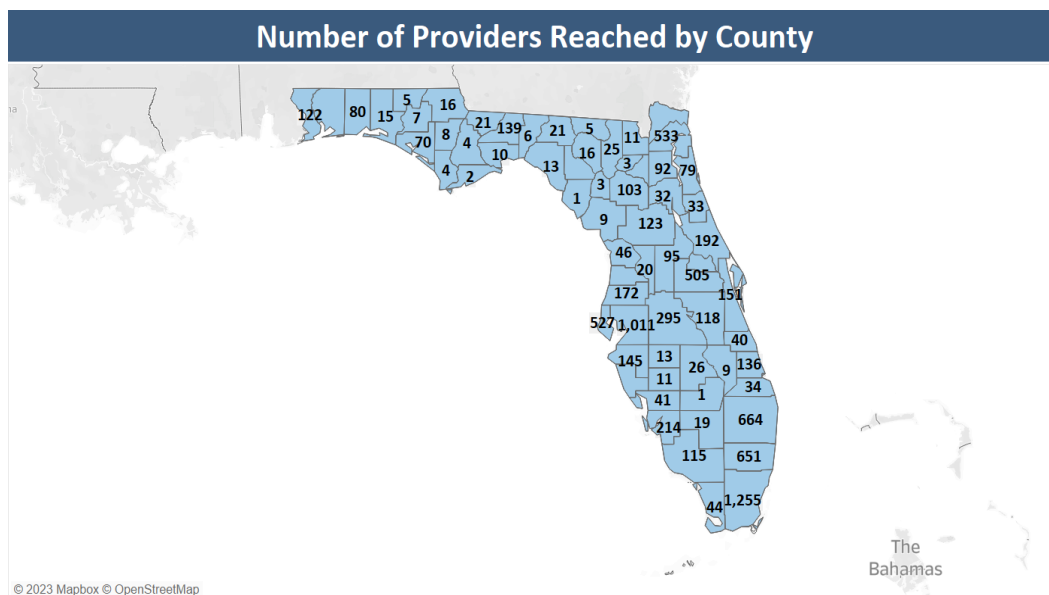

8,610 Child Care Programs in Florida have Received American Rescue Plan Stabilization Support, Impacting up to 834,200 Children

ARP's historic investment provided Florida with $1.5 billion for their Child Care Stabilization program. The program has been critical to helping child care centers and family child care providers nationwide remain open or reopen, keeping child care workers on the payroll, and ensuring families have reliable options for high quality care while they work. Child care programs are mostly small businesses and are essential for families, communities, and the economy.

The ARP Child Care Stabilization program has been an unprecedented lifeline for the child care sector that helped parents return to work and spurred economic recovery. So far, more than 220,000 child care programs serving as many as 9.6 million children have received assistance across the country from this program.

In Florida:

- Providers in 100% of Florida counties have received funds.
- 6,610 child care centers that received stabilization payments most commonly used them to pay for personnel costs and keep programs staffed.
- 2,060 child care family homes that received stabilization payments most commonly used them to pay for rent and mortgage payments, typically their largest operating expense.

County total may not sum to the state total due to rounding.

FL's center and family child care data included a small number of duplicate counts, so do not sum to the correct total.

ACF-901 data through December 31, 2022.

Georgia ARP Child Care Stabilization Fact Sheet

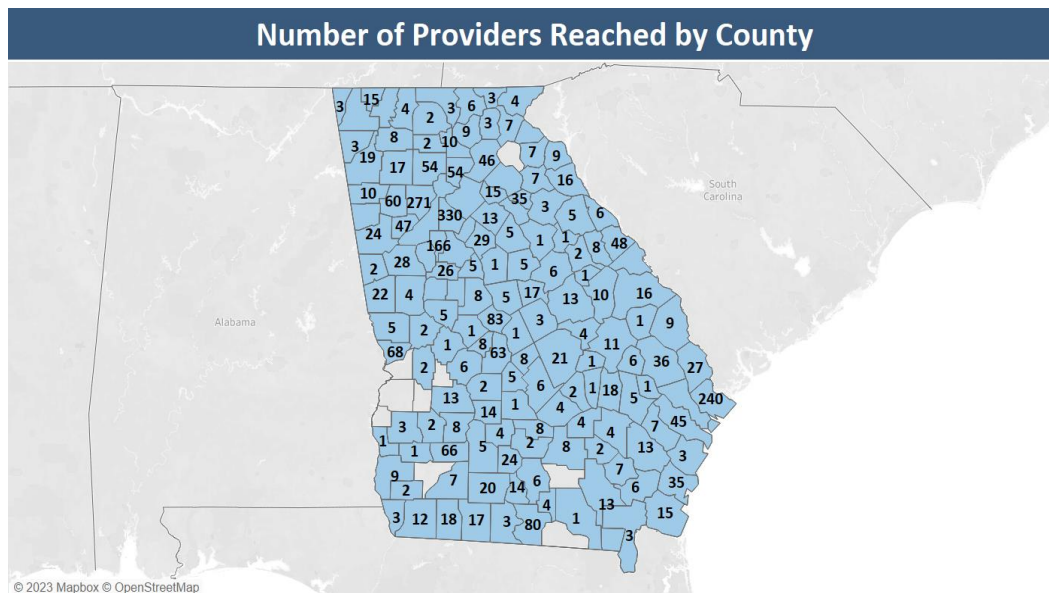

3,870 Child Care Programs in Georgia have Received American Rescue Plan Stabilization Support, Impacting up to 334,900 Children

ARP's historic investment provided Georgia with $968.3 million for their Child Care Stabilization program. The program has been critical to helping child care centers and family child care providers nationwide remain open or reopen, keeping child care workers on the payroll, and ensuring families have reliable options for high quality care while they work. Child care programs are mostly small businesses and are essential for families, communities, and the economy.

The ARP Child Care Stabilization program has been an unprecedented lifeline for the child care sector that helped parents return to work and spurred economic recovery. So far, more than 220,000 child care programs serving as many as 9.6 million children have received assistance across the country from this program.

In Georgia:

- Providers in 94% of Georgia counties have received funds.
- 2,795 child care centers that received stabilization payments most commonly used them to pay for personnel costs and keep programs staffed.
- 1,075 child care family homes that received stabilization payments most commonly used them to pay for personnel costs and keep programs staffed.

County total may not sum to the state total due to rounding.
ACF-901 data through June 30, 2022.

ADMINISTRATION FOR
CHILDREN & FAMILIES

 Office of Child Care

Hawaii ARP Child Care Stabilization Fact Sheet

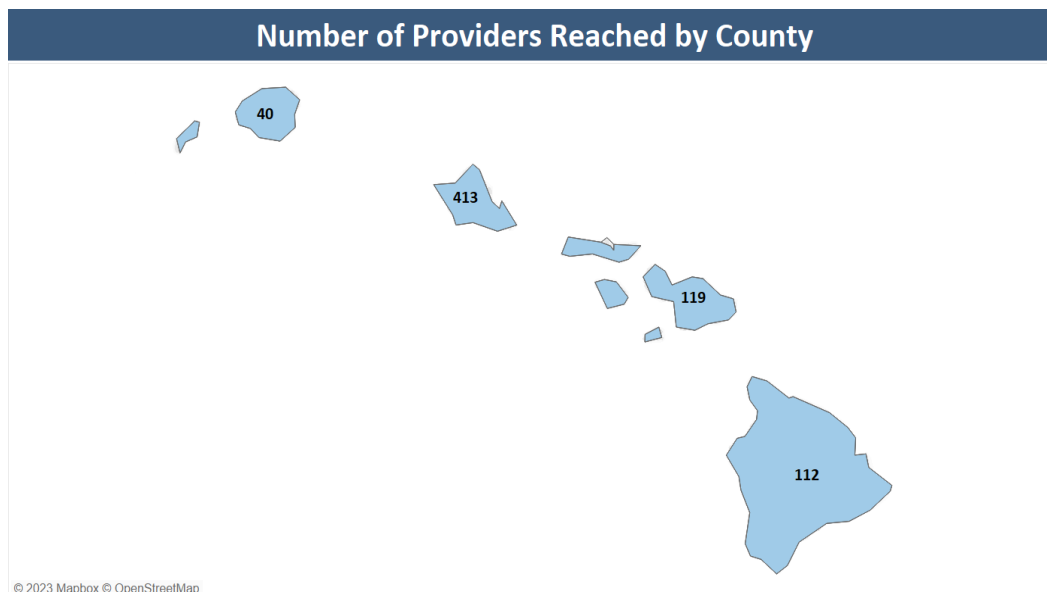

680 Child Care Programs in Hawaii have Received American Rescue Plan Stabilization Support, Impacting up to 31,400 Children

ARP's historic investment provided Hawaii with $79.9 million for their Child Care Stabilization program. The program has been critical to helping child care centers and family child care providers nationwide remain open or reopen, keeping child care workers on the payroll, and ensuring families have reliable options for high quality care while they work. Child care programs are mostly small businesses and are essential for families, communities, and the economy.

The ARP Child Care Stabilization program has been an unprecedented lifeline for the child care sector that helped parents return to work and spurred economic recovery. So far, more than 220,000 child care programs serving as many as 9.6 million children have received assistance across the country from this program.

In Hawaii:

- Providers in 80% of Hawaii counties have received funds.
- 430 child care centers that received stabilization payments most commonly used them to pay for personnel costs and keep programs staffed.
- 260 child care family homes that received stabilization payments most commonly used them to pay for rent and mortgage payments, typically their largest operating expense.
- On average, child care centers have received an award of $152,300 and family homes have received $28,700.

County total may not sum to the state total due to rounding.

HI's center and family child care data included a small number of duplicate counts, so do not sum to the correct total.

ACF-901 data through December 31, 2022.

ADMINISTRATION FOR
CHILDREN & FAMILIES

 Office of Child Care

Idaho ARP Child Care Stabilization Fact Sheet

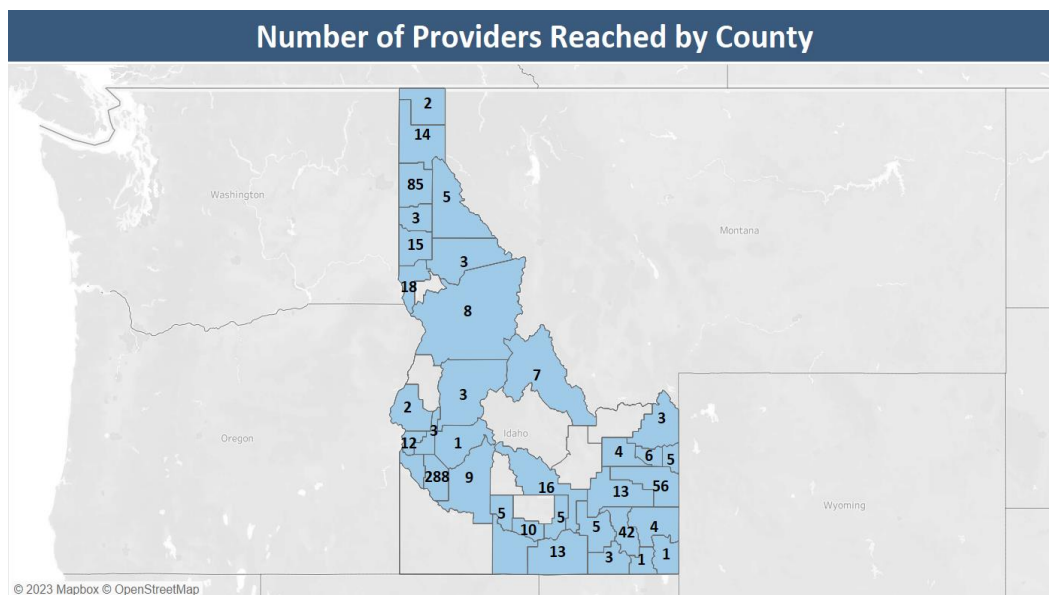

830 Child Care Programs in Idaho have Received American Rescue Plan Stabilization Support, Impacting up to 47,700 Children

ARP's historic investment provided Idaho with $138.6 million for their Child Care Stabilization program. The program has been critical to helping child care centers and family child care providers nationwide remain open or reopen, keeping child care workers on the payroll, and ensuring families have reliable options for high quality care while they work. Child care programs are mostly small businesses and are essential for families, communities, and the economy.

The ARP Child Care Stabilization program has been an unprecedented lifeline for the child care sector that helped parents return to work and spurred economic recovery. So far, more than 220,000 child care programs serving as many as 9.6 million children have received assistance across the country from this program.

In Idaho:

- Providers in 82% of Idaho counties have received funds.
- 515 child care centers that received stabilization payments most commonly used them to pay for personnel costs and keep programs staffed.
- 315 child care family homes that received stabilization payments most commonly used them to pay for rent and mortgage payments, typically their largest operating expense.

County total may not sum to the state total due to rounding.
ACF-901 data through December 31, 2022.

ADMINISTRATION FOR
CHILDREN & FAMILIES

 Office of Child Care

Illinois ARP Child Care Stabilization Fact Sheet

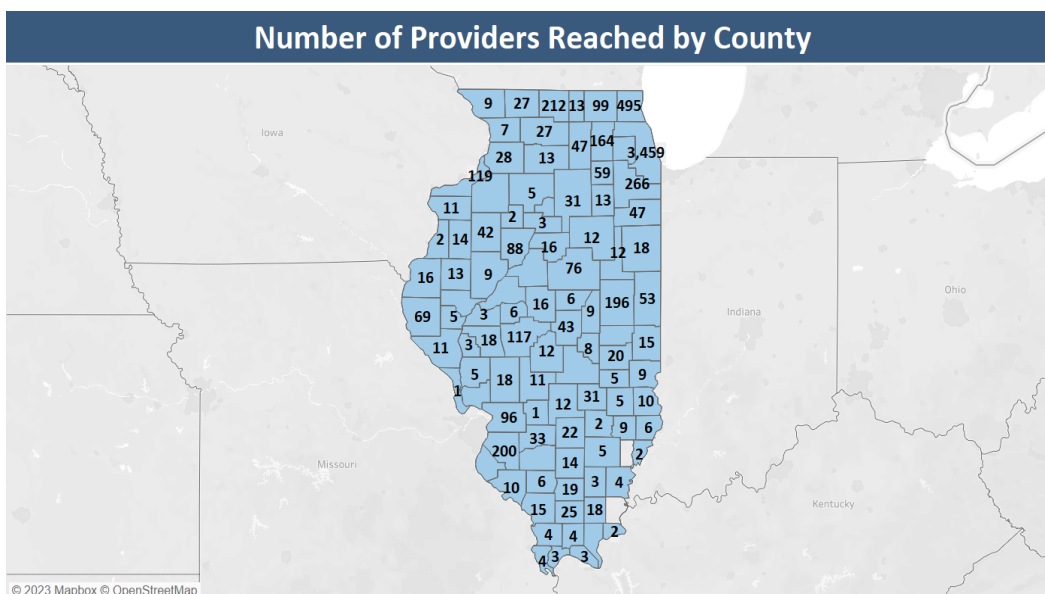

7,170 Child Care Programs in Illinois have Received American Rescue Plan Stabilization Support, Impacting up to 327,900 Children

ARP's historic investment provided Illinois with $796.3 million for their Child Care Stabilization program. The program has been critical to helping child care centers and family child care providers nationwide remain open or reopen, keeping child care workers on the payroll, and ensuring families have reliable options for high quality care while they work. Child care programs are mostly small businesses and are essential for families, communities, and the economy.

The ARP Child Care Stabilization program has been an unprecedented lifeline for the child care sector that helped parents return to work and spurred economic recovery. So far, more than 220,000 child care programs serving as many as 9.6 million children have received assistance across the country from this program.

In Illinois:

- Providers in 98% of Illinois counties have received funds.
- 3,065 child care centers that received stabilization payments most commonly used them to pay for personnel costs and keep programs staffed.
- 4,110 child care family homes that received stabilization payments most commonly used them to pay for personnel costs and keep programs staffed.
- On average, child care centers have received an award of $209,400 and family homes have received $12,500.

County total may not sum to the state total due to rounding.

IL's center and family child care data does not sum to the correct total due to rounding.

ACF-901 data through December 31, 2022.

ADMINISTRATION FOR
CHILDREN & FAMILIES

 Office of Child Care

Indiana ARP Child Care Stabilization Fact Sheet

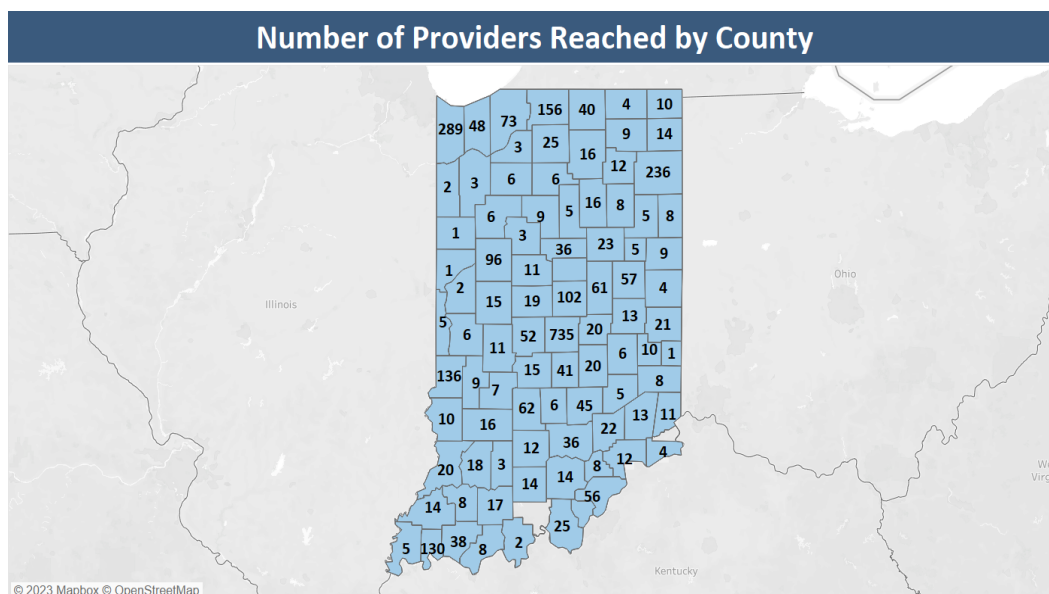

3,270 Child Care Programs in Indiana have Received American Rescue Plan Stabilization Support, Impacting up to 157,100 Children

ARP's historic investment provided Indiana with $540.2 million for their Child Care Stabilization program. The program has been critical to helping child care centers and family child care providers nationwide remain open or reopen, keeping child care workers on the payroll, and ensuring families have reliable options for high quality care while they work. Child care programs are mostly small businesses and are essential for families, communities, and the economy.

The ARP Child Care Stabilization program has been an unprecedented lifeline for the child care sector that helped parents return to work and spurred economic recovery. So far, more than 220,000 child care programs serving as many as 9.6 million children have received assistance across the country from this program.

In Indiana:

- Providers in 98% of Indiana counties have received funds.
- 1,435 child care centers that received stabilization payments most commonly used them to pay for personnel costs and keep programs staffed.
- 1,835 child care family homes that received stabilization payments most commonly used them to pay for rent and mortgage payments, typically their largest operating expense.
- On average, child care centers have received an award of $315,900 and family homes have received $47,500.

County total may not sum to the state total due to rounding.

ACF-901 data through December 31, 2022.

Iowa ARP Child Care Stabilization Fact Sheet

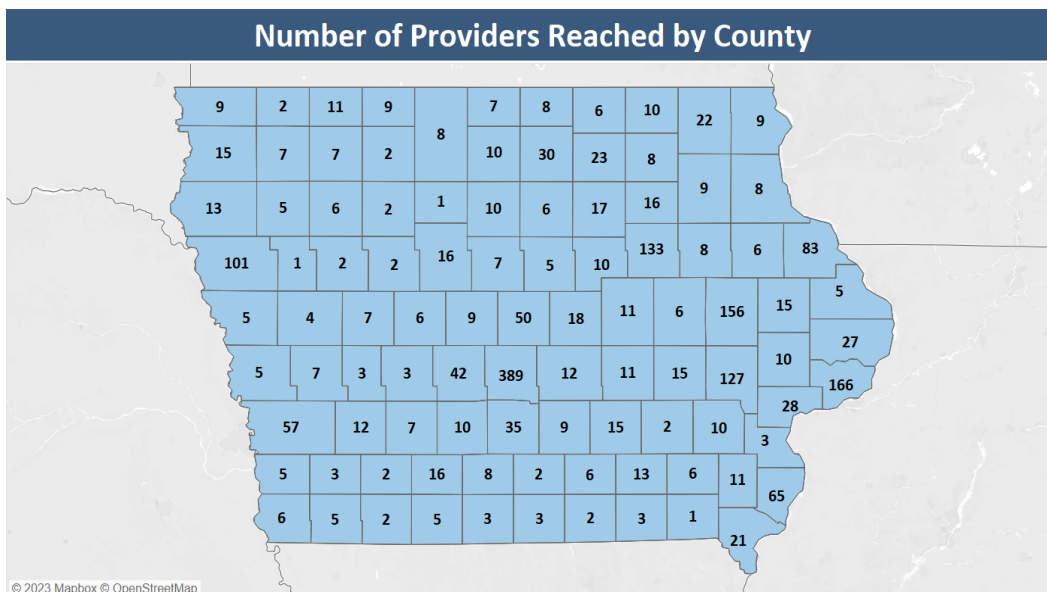

2,155 Child Care Programs in Iowa have Received American Rescue Plan Stabilization Support, Impacting up to 73,900 Children

ARP's historic investment provided Iowa with $227.6 million for their Child Care Stabilization program. The program has been critical to helping child care centers and family child care providers nationwide remain open or reopen, keeping child care workers on the payroll, and ensuring families have reliable options for high quality care while they work. Child care programs are mostly small businesses and are essential for families, communities, and the economy.

The ARP Child Care Stabilization program has been an unprecedented lifeline for the child care sector that helped parents return to work and spurred economic recovery. So far, more than 220,000 child care programs serving as many as 9.6 million children have received assistance across the country from this program.

In Iowa:

- Providers in 100% of Iowa counties have received funds.
- 855 child care centers that received stabilization payments most commonly used them to pay for personnel costs and keep programs staffed.
- 1,300 child care family homes that received stabilization payments most commonly used them to pay for rent and mortgage payments, typically their largest operating expense.
- On average, child care centers have received an award of $210,500 and family homes have received $27,700.

County total may not sum to the state total due to rounding.

ACF-901 data through December 31, 2022.

ADMINISTRATION FOR
CHILDREN & FAMILIES

 Office of Child Care

Kansas ARP Child Care Stabilization Fact Sheet

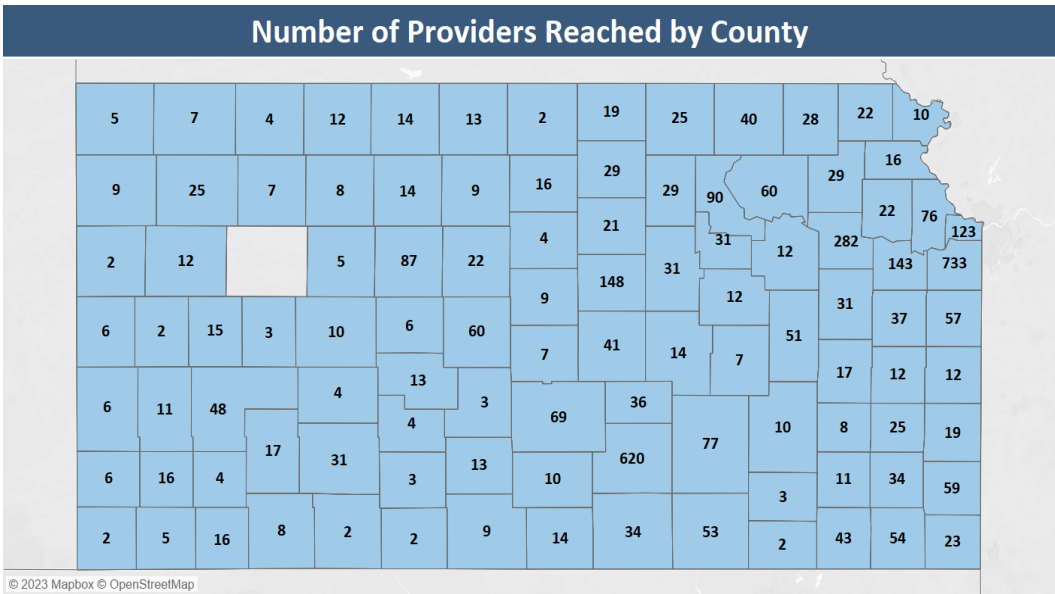

4,120 Child Care Programs in Kansas have Received American Rescue Plan Stabilization Support, Impacting up to 127,300 Children

ARP's historic investment provided Kansas with $213.9 million for their Child Care Stabilization program. The program has been critical to helping child care centers and family child care providers nationwide remain open or reopen, keeping child care workers on the payroll, and ensuring families have reliable options for high quality care while they work. Child care programs are mostly small businesses and are essential for families, communities, and the economy.

The ARP Child Care Stabilization program has been an unprecedented lifeline for the child care sector that helped parents return to work and spurred economic recovery. So far, more than 220,000 child care programs serving as many as 9.6 million children have received assistance across the country from this program.

In Kansas:

- Providers in 99% of Kansas counties have received funds.
- 1,120 child care centers that received stabilization payments most commonly used them to pay for personnel costs and keep programs staffed.
- 3,005 child care family homes that received stabilization payments most commonly used them to pay for rent and mortgage payments, typically their largest operating expense.
- On average, child care centers have received an award of $111,600 and family homes have received $18,000.

County total may not sum to the state total due to rounding.

KS's center and family child care data included a small number of duplicate counts, so do not sum to the correct total.

ACF-901 data through December 31, 2022.

Kentucky ARP Child Care Stabilization Fact Sheet

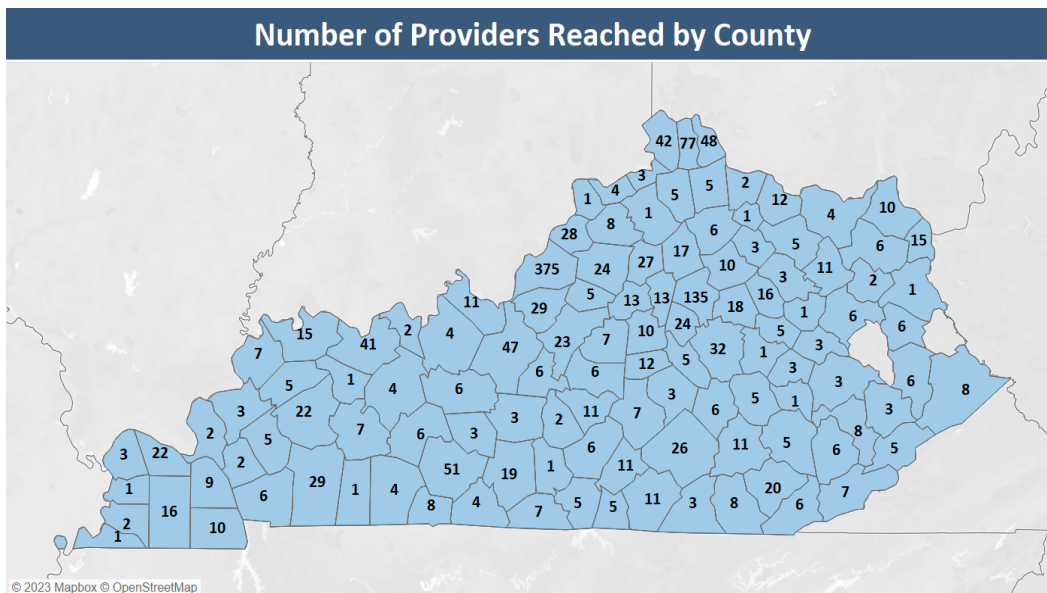

1,725 Child Care Programs in Kentucky have Received American Rescue Plan Stabilization Support, Impacting up to 129,000 Children

ARP's historic investment provided Kentucky with $470.1 million for their Child Care Stabilization program. The program has been critical to helping child care centers and family child care providers nationwide remain open or reopen, keeping child care workers on the payroll, and ensuring families have reliable options for high quality care while they work. Child care programs are mostly small businesses and are essential for families, communities, and the economy.

The ARP Child Care Stabilization program has been an unprecedented lifeline for the child care sector that helped parents return to work and spurred economic recovery. So far, more than 220,000 child care programs serving as many as 9.6 million children have received assistance across the country from this program.

In Kentucky:

- Providers in 98% of Kentucky counties have received funds.
- 1,530 child care centers that received stabilization payments most commonly used them to pay for personnel costs and keep programs staffed.
- 190 child care family homes that received stabilization payments most commonly used them to pay for rent and mortgage payments, typically their largest operating expense.

County total may not sum to the state total due to rounding.

KY also provided grants to other types of child care providers that met CCDF and ARP eligibility requirements.

ACF-901 data through December 31, 2022.

ADMINISTRATION FOR
CHILDREN & FAMILIES

 Office of Child Care

Louisiana ARP Child Care Stabilization Fact Sheet

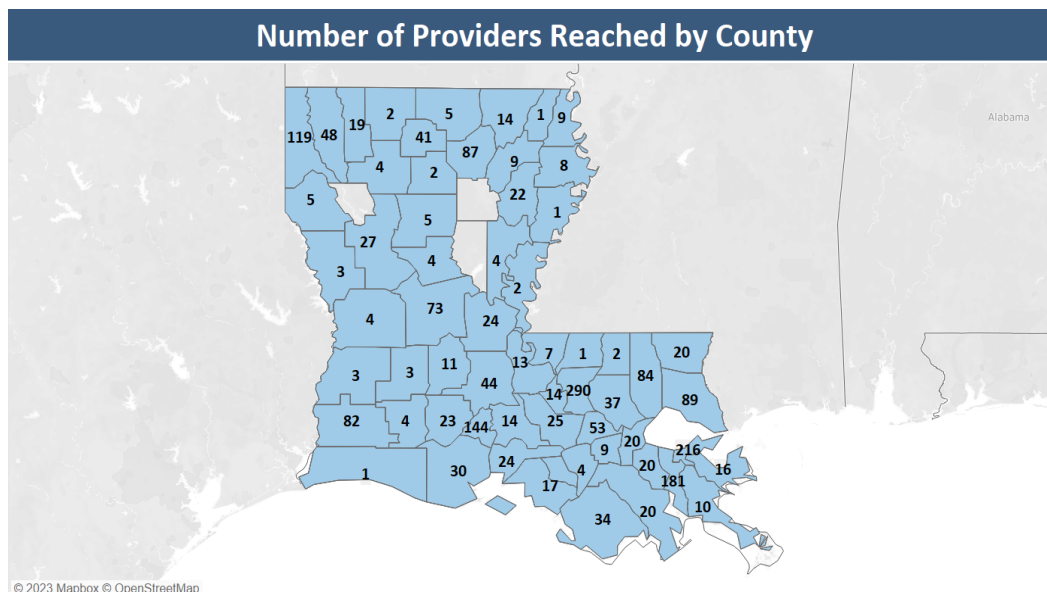

2,105 Child Care Programs in Louisiana have Received American Rescue Plan Stabilization Support, Impacting up to 150,200 Children

ARP's historic investment provided Louisiana with $475.7 million for their Child Care Stabilization program. The program has been critical to helping child care centers and family child care providers nationwide remain open or reopen, keeping child care workers on the payroll, and ensuring families have reliable options for high quality care while they work. Child care programs are mostly small businesses and are essential for families, communities, and the economy.

The ARP Child Care Stabilization program has been an unprecedented lifeline for the child care sector that helped parents return to work and spurred economic recovery. So far, more than 220,000 child care programs serving as many as 9.6 million children have received assistance across the country from this program.

In Louisiana:

- Providers in 95% of Louisiana counties have received funds.
- 1,785 child care centers that received stabilization payments most commonly used them to pay for goods and services necessary to operate the program.
- 320 child care family homes that received stabilization payments most commonly used them to pay for goods and services necessary to operate the program.
- On average, child care centers have received an award of $171,500 and family homes have received $18,100.

County total may not sum to the state total due to rounding.

ACF-901 data through December 31, 2022.

Maine ARP Child Care Stabilization Fact Sheet

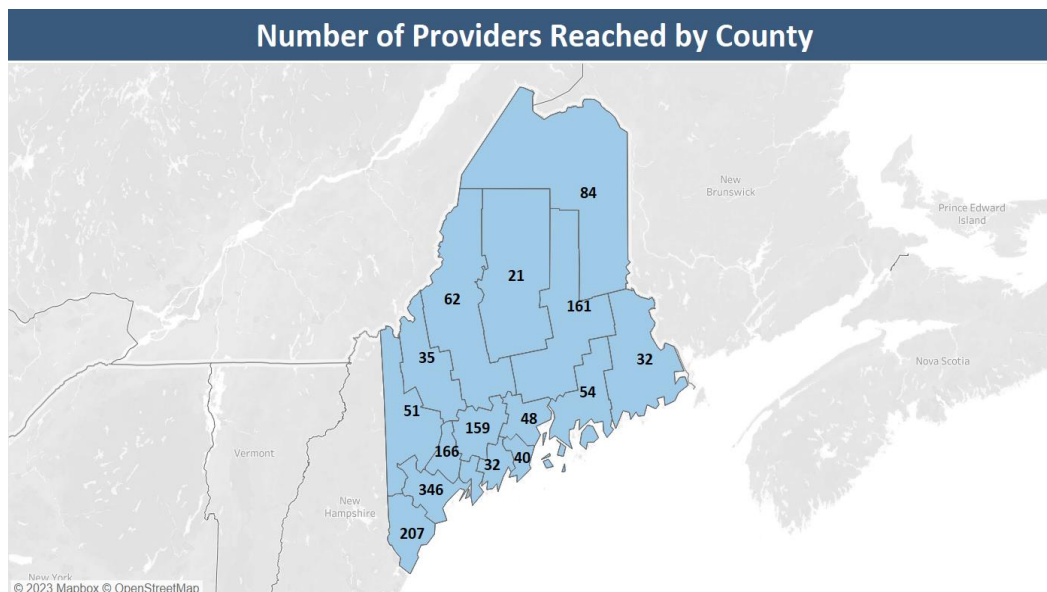

1,530 Child Care Programs in Maine have Received American Rescue Plan Stabilization Support, Impacting up to 47,200 Children

ARP's historic investment provided Maine with $73.2 million for their Child Care Stabilization program. The program has been critical to helping child care centers and family child care providers nationwide remain open or reopen, keeping child care workers on the payroll, and ensuring families have reliable options for high quality care while they work. Child care programs are mostly small businesses and are essential for families, communities, and the economy.

The ARP Child Care Stabilization program has been an unprecedented lifeline for the child care sector that helped parents return to work and spurred economic recovery. So far, more than 220,000 child care programs serving as many as 9.6 million children have received assistance across the country from this program.

In Maine:

- Providers in 100% of Maine counties have received funds.
- 805 child care centers that received stabilization payments most commonly used them to pay for PPE to ensure safe environments for children and staff.
- 730 child care family homes that received stabilization payments most commonly used them to pay for goods and services necessary to operate the program.
- On average, child care centers have received an award of $75,100 and family homes have received $16,800.

County total may not sum to the state total due to rounding.

ME's center and family child care data included a small number of duplicate counts, so do not sum to the correct total.

ACF-901 data through December 31, 2022.

ADMINISTRATION FOR
CHILDREN & FAMILIES

 Office of Child Care

Maryland ARP Child Care Stabilization Fact Sheet

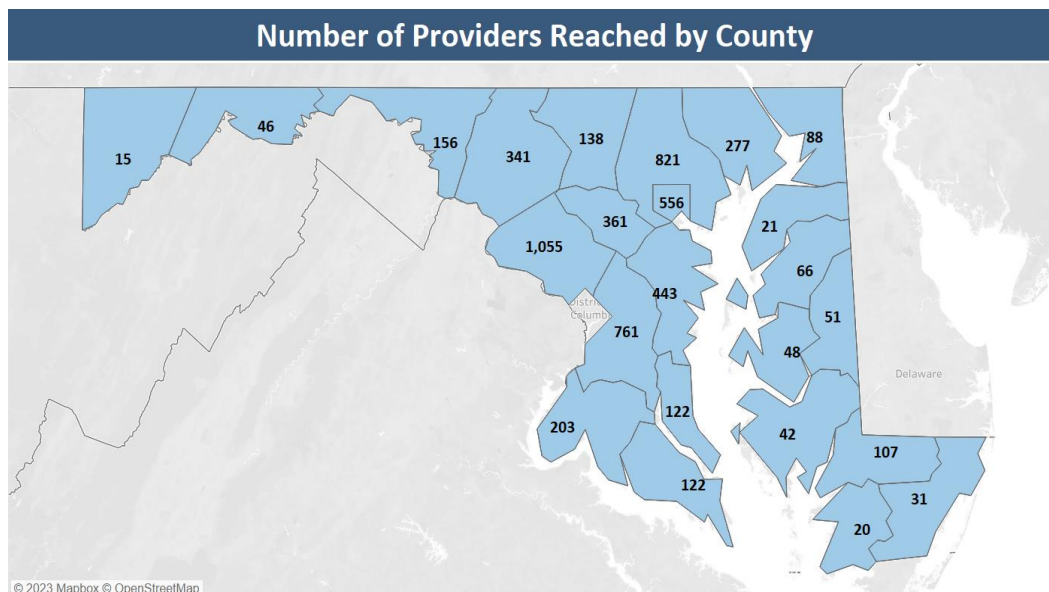

5,900 Child Care Programs in Maryland have Received American Rescue Plan Stabilization Support, Impacting up to 170,900 Children

ARP's historic investment provided Maryland with $309.1 million for their Child Care Stabilization program. The program has been critical to helping child care centers and family child care providers nationwide remain open or reopen, keeping child care workers on the payroll, and ensuring families have reliable options for high quality care while they work. Child care programs are mostly small businesses and are essential for families, communities, and the economy.

The ARP Child Care Stabilization program has been an unprecedented lifeline for the child care sector that helped parents return to work and spurred economic recovery. So far, more than 220,000 child care programs serving as many as 9.6 million children have received assistance across the country from this program.

In Maryland:

- Providers in 100% of Maryland counties have received funds.
- 2,080 child care centers that received stabilization payments most commonly used them to pay for personnel costs and keep programs staffed.
- 3,945 child care family homes that received stabilization payments most commonly used them to pay for rent and mortgage payments, typically their largest operating expense.
- On average, child care centers have received an award of $86,900 and family homes have received $31,600.

County total may not sum to the state total due to rounding.

MD's center and family child care data included a small number of duplicate counts, so do not sum to the correct total.

ACF-901 data through December 31, 2022.

ADMINISTRATION FOR
CHILDREN & FAMILIES

 Office of Child Care

Massachusetts ARP Child Care Stabilization Fact Sheet

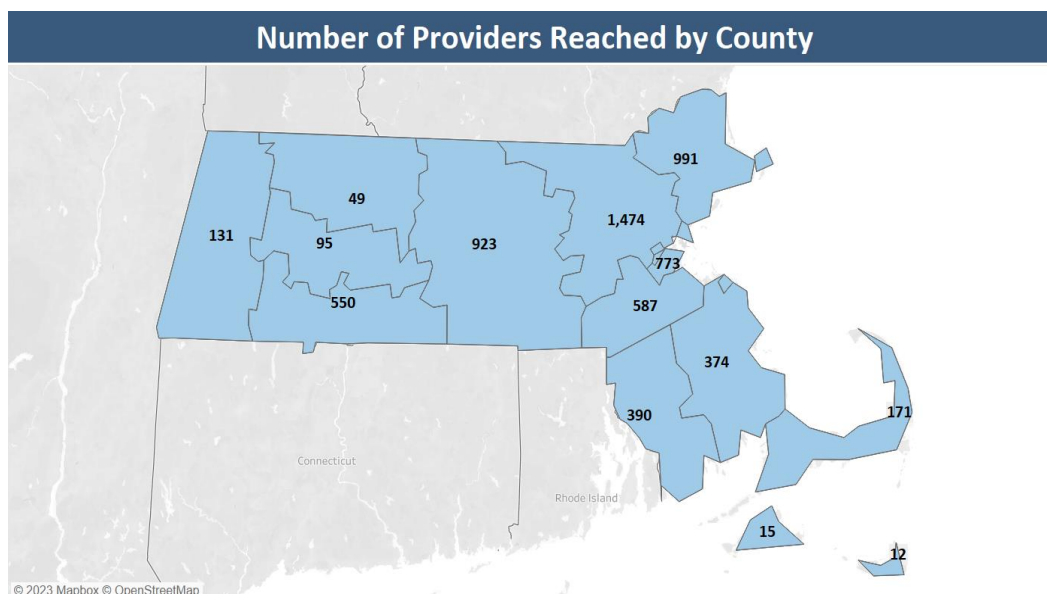

6,530 Child Care Programs in Massachusetts have Received American Rescue Plan Stabilization Support, Impacting up to 202,400 Children

ARP's historic investment provided Massachusetts with $314.4 million for their Child Care Stabilization program. The program has been critical to helping child care centers and family child care providers nationwide remain open or reopen, keeping child care workers on the payroll, and ensuring families have reliable options for high quality care while they work. Child care programs are mostly small businesses and are essential for families, communities, and the economy.

The ARP Child Care Stabilization program has been an unprecedented lifeline for the child care sector that helped parents return to work and spurred economic recovery. So far, more than 220,000 child care programs serving as many as 9.6 million children have received assistance across the country from this program.

In Massachusetts:

- Providers in 100% of Massachusetts counties have received funds.
- 2,440 child care centers that received stabilization payments most commonly used them to pay for personnel costs and keep programs staffed.
- 4,090 child care family homes that received stabilization payments most commonly used them to pay for rent and mortgage payments, typically their largest operating expense.
- On average, child care centers have received an award of $95,500 and family homes have received $12,800.

County total may not sum to the state total due to rounding.

ACF-901 data through December 31, 2022.

Michigan ARP Child Care Stabilization Fact Sheet

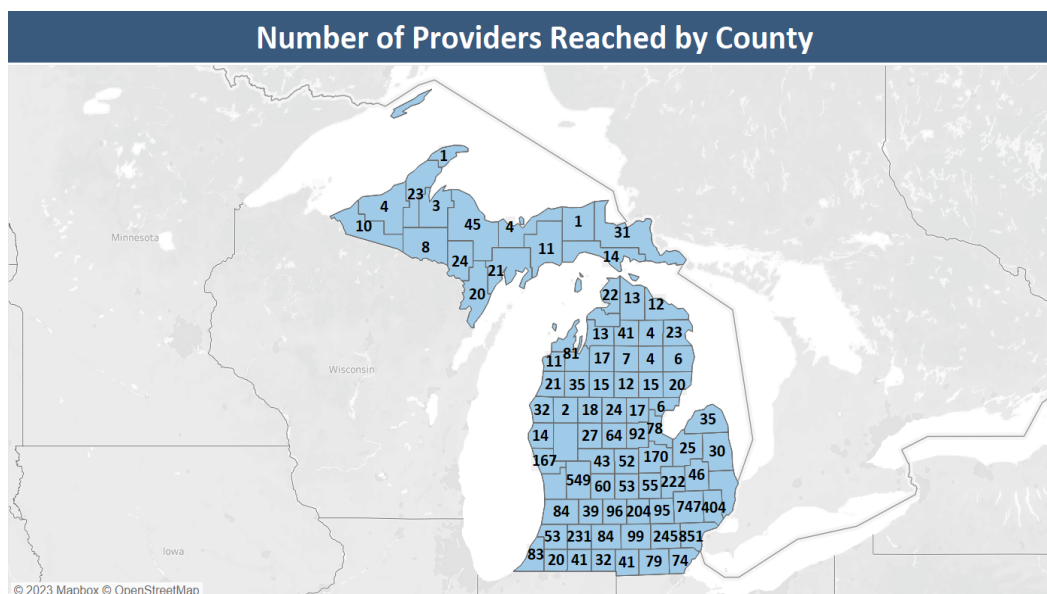

6,465 Child Care Programs in Michigan have Received American Rescue Plan Stabilization Support, Impacting up to 290,500 Children

ARP's historic investment provided Michigan with $700.7 million for their Child Care Stabilization program. The program has been critical to helping child care centers and family child care providers nationwide remain open or reopen, keeping child care workers on the payroll, and ensuring families have reliable options for high quality care while they work. Child care programs are mostly small businesses and are essential for families, communities, and the economy.

The ARP Child Care Stabilization program has been an unprecedented lifeline for the child care sector that helped parents return to work and spurred economic recovery. So far, more than 220,000 child care programs serving as many as 9.6 million children have received assistance across the country from this program.

In Michigan:

- Providers in 100% of Michigan counties have received funds.
- 3,175 child care centers that received stabilization payments most commonly used them to pay for personnel costs and keep programs staffed.
- 3,290 child care family homes that received stabilization payments most commonly used them to pay for rent and mortgage payments, typically their largest operating expense.
- On average, child care centers have received an award of $271,300 and family homes have received $37,900.

County total may not sum to the state total due to rounding.

MI included some CRRSA funding in their data, so metrics on this fact sheet are not solely due to ARP Stabilization funding.

ACF-901 data through December 31, 2022.

ADMINISTRATION FOR
CHILDREN & FAMILIES

Office of Child Care

Minnesota ARP Child Care Stabilization Fact Sheet

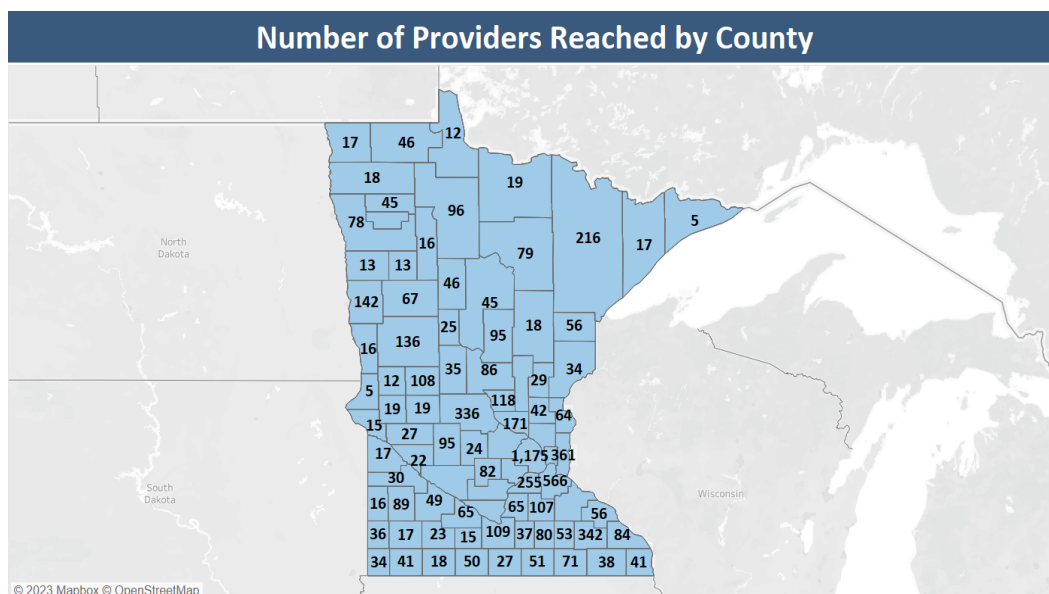

8,230 Child Care Programs in Minnesota have Received American Rescue Plan Stabilization Support, Impacting up to 212,500 Children

ARP's historic investment provided Minnesota with $324.2 million for their Child Care Stabilization program. The program has been critical to helping child care centers and family child care providers nationwide remain open or reopen, keeping child care workers on the payroll, and ensuring families have reliable options for high quality care while they work. Child care programs are mostly small businesses and are essential for families, communities, and the economy.

The ARP Child Care Stabilization program has been an unprecedented lifeline for the child care sector that helped parents return to work and spurred economic recovery. So far, more than 220,000 child care programs serving as many as 9.6 million children have received assistance across the country from this program.

In Minnesota:

- Providers in 100% of Minnesota counties have received funds.
- 2,185 child care centers that received stabilization payments most commonly used them to pay for personnel costs and keep programs staffed.
- 6,045 child care family homes that received stabilization payments most commonly used them to pay for rent and mortgage payments, typically their largest operating expense.
- On average, child care centers have received an award of $77,400 and family homes have received $8,400.

County total may not sum to the state total due to rounding.

ACF-901 data through December 31, 2022.

ADMINISTRATION FOR
CHILDREN & FAMILIES

 Office of Child Care

Mississippi ARP Child Care Stabilization Fact Sheet

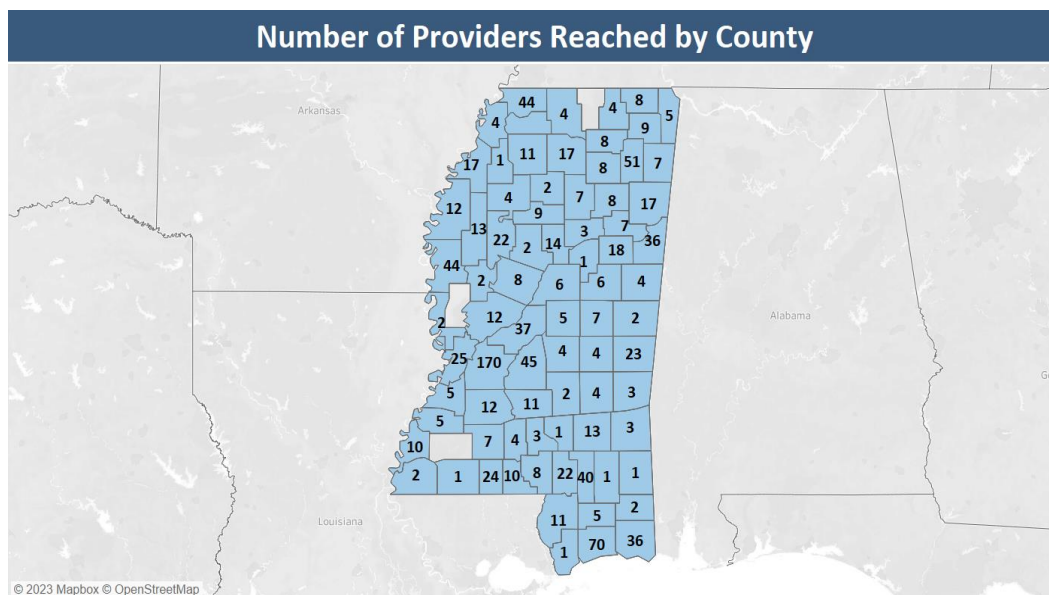

1,090 Child Care Programs in Mississippi have Received American Rescue Plan Stabilization Support, Impacting up to 85,100 Children

ARP's historic investment provided Mississippi with $319.5 million for their Child Care Stabilization program. The program has been critical to helping child care centers and family child care providers nationwide remain open or reopen, keeping child care workers on the payroll, and ensuring families have reliable options for high quality care while they work. Child care programs are mostly small businesses and are essential for families, communities, and the economy.

The ARP Child Care Stabilization program has been an unprecedented lifeline for the child care sector that helped parents return to work and spurred economic recovery. So far, more than 220,000 child care programs serving as many as 9.6 million children have received assistance across the country from this program.

In Mississippi:

- Providers in 96% of Mississippi counties have received funds.
- 1,020 child care centers that received stabilization payments most commonly used them to pay for rent and mortgage payments to help ensure their doors stayed open.
- 70 child care family homes that received stabilization payments most commonly used them to pay for rent and mortgage payments, typically their largest operating expense.

County total may not sum to the state total due to rounding.
ACF-901 data through December 31, 2022.

ADMINISTRATION FOR
CHILDREN & FAMILIES

Office of Child Care

Missouri ARP Child Care Stabilization Fact Sheet

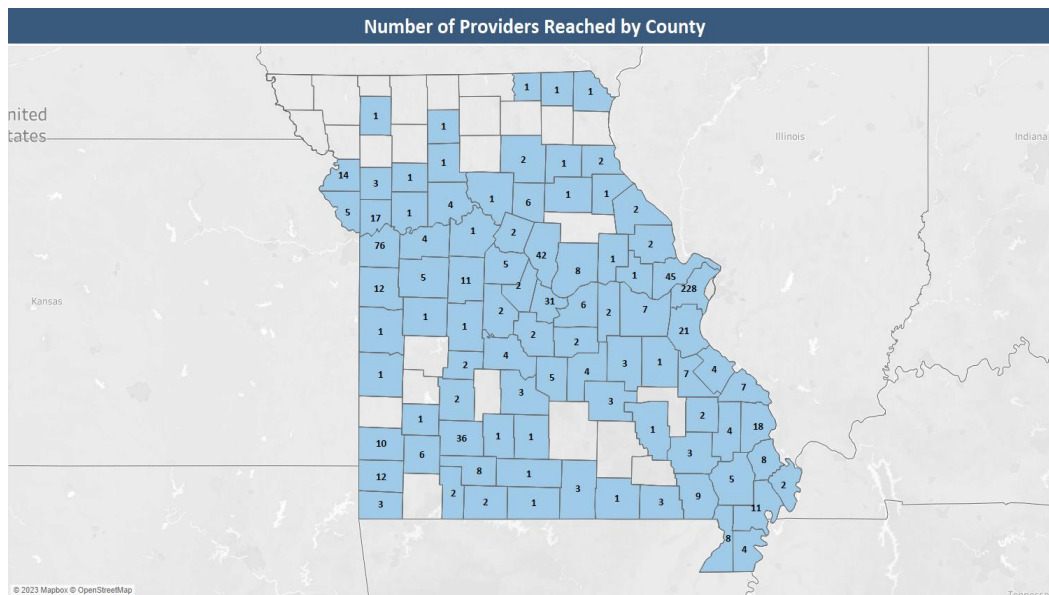

810 Child Care Programs in Missouri have Received American Rescue Plan Stabilization Support, Impacting up to 48,300 Children

ARP's historic investment provided Missouri with $444.1 million for their Child Care Stabilization program. The program has been critical to helping child care centers and family child care providers nationwide remain open or reopen, keeping child care workers on the payroll, and ensuring families have reliable options for high quality care while they work. Child care programs are mostly small businesses and are essential for families, communities, and the economy.

The ARP Child Care Stabilization program has been an unprecedented lifeline for the child care sector that helped parents return to work and spurred economic recovery. So far, more than 220,000 child care programs serving as many as 9.6 million children have received assistance across the country from this program.

In Missouri:

- Providers in 77% of Missouri counties have received funds.
- 680 child care centers that received stabilization payments most commonly used them to pay for personnel costs and keep programs staffed.
- 130 child care family homes that received stabilization payments most commonly used them to pay for personnel costs and keep programs staffed.

County total may not sum to the state total due to rounding.
ACF-901 data through December 31, 2022.

Montana ARP Child Care Stabilization Fact Sheet

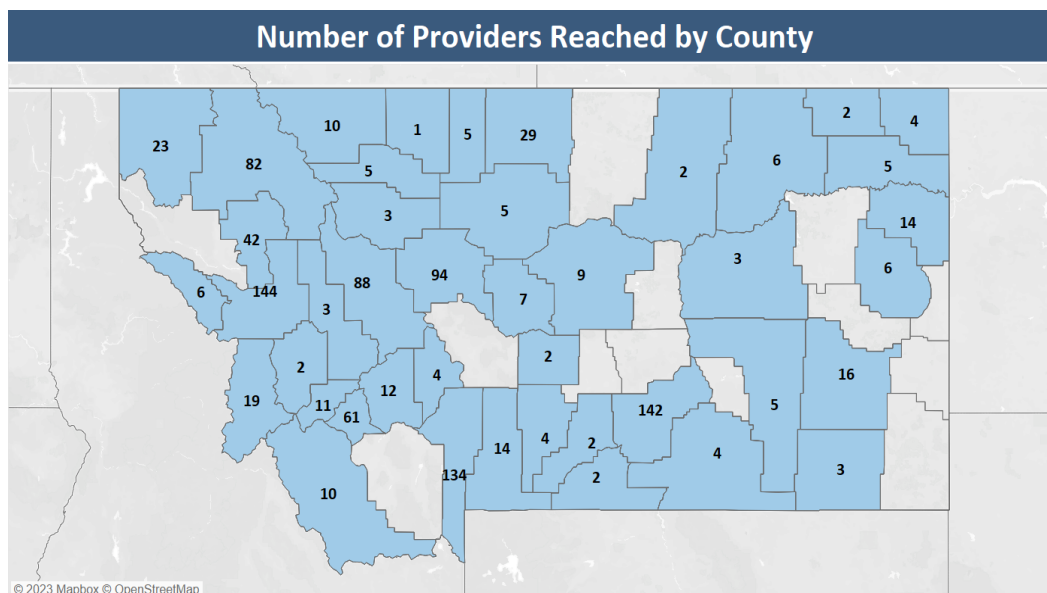

1,040 Child Care Programs in Montana have Received American Rescue Plan Stabilization Support, Impacting up to 26,400 Children

ARP's historic investment provided Montana with $68.1 million for their Child Care Stabilization program. The program has been critical to helping child care centers and family child care providers nationwide remain open or reopen, keeping child care workers on the payroll, and ensuring families have reliable options for high quality care while they work. Child care programs are mostly small businesses and are essential for families, communities, and the economy.

The ARP Child Care Stabilization program has been an unprecedented lifeline for the child care sector that helped parents return to work and spurred economic recovery. So far, more than 220,000 child care programs serving as many as 9.6 million children have received assistance across the country from this program.

In Montana:

- Providers in 77% of Montana counties have received funds.
- 365 child care centers that received stabilization payments most commonly used them to pay for personnel costs and keep programs staffed.
- 675 child care family homes that received stabilization payments most commonly used them to pay for rent and mortgage payments, typically their largest operating expense.

County total may not sum to the state total due to rounding.
ACF-901 data through December 31, 2022.

ADMINISTRATION FOR
CHILDREN & FAMILIES

Office of Child Care

Nebraska ARP Child Care Stabilization Fact Sheet

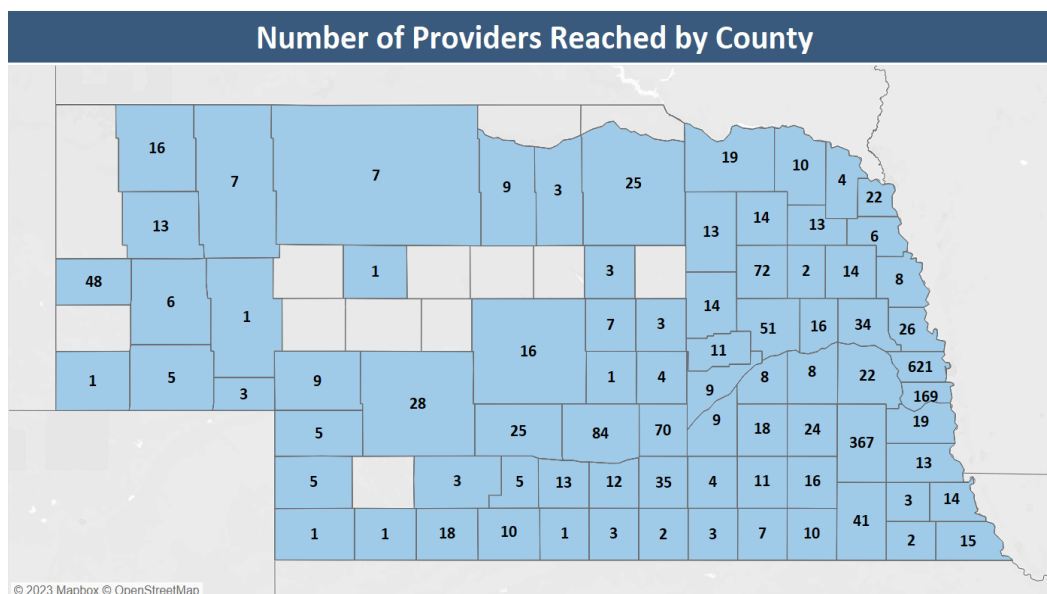

2,270 Child Care Programs in Nebraska have Received American Rescue Plan Stabilization Support, Impacting up to 103,700 Children

ARP's historic investment provided Nebraska with $143.1 million for their Child Care Stabilization program. The program has been critical to helping child care centers and family child care providers nationwide remain open or reopen, keeping child care workers on the payroll, and ensuring families have reliable options for high quality care while they work. Child care programs are mostly small businesses and are essential for families, communities, and the economy.

The ARP Child Care Stabilization program has been an unprecedented lifeline for the child care sector that helped parents return to work and spurred economic recovery. So far, more than 220,000 child care programs serving as many as 9.6 million children have received assistance across the country from this program.

In Nebraska:

- Providers in 86% of Nebraska counties have received funds.
- 920 child care centers that received stabilization payments most commonly used them to pay for personnel costs and keep programs staffed.
- 1,350 child care family homes that received stabilization payments most commonly used them to pay for rent and mortgage payments, typically their largest operating expense.
- On average, child care centers have received an award of $119,400 and family homes have received $21,400.

Nevada ARP Child Care Stabilization Fact Sheet

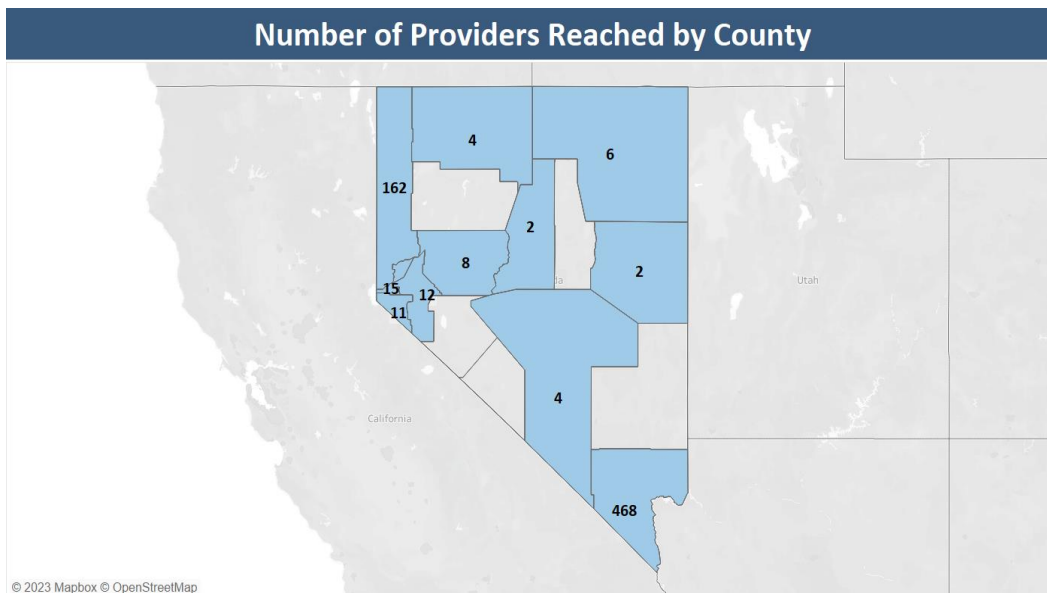

685 Child Care Programs in Nevada have Received American Rescue Plan Stabilization Support, Impacting up to 36,600 Children

ARP's historic investment provided Nevada with $222.4 million for their Child Care Stabilization program. The program has been critical to helping child care centers and family child care providers nationwide remain open or reopen, keeping child care workers on the payroll, and ensuring families have reliable options for high quality care while they work. Child care programs are mostly small businesses and are essential for families, communities, and the economy.

The ARP Child Care Stabilization program has been an unprecedented lifeline for the child care sector that helped parents return to work and spurred economic recovery. So far, more than 220,000 child care programs serving as many as 9.6 million children have received assistance across the country from this program.

In Nevada:

- Providers in 71% of Nevada counties have received funds.
- 300 child care centers that received stabilization payments most commonly used them to pay for personnel costs and keep programs staffed.
- 405 child care family homes that received stabilization payments most commonly used them to pay for personnel costs and keep programs staffed.

County total may not sum to the state total due to rounding.

NV's center and family child care data included a small number of duplicate counts, so do not sum to the correct total.

ACF-901 data through December 31, 2022.

ADMINISTRATION FOR
CHILDREN & FAMILIES

 Office of Child Care

New Hampshire ARP Child Care Stabilization Fact Sheet

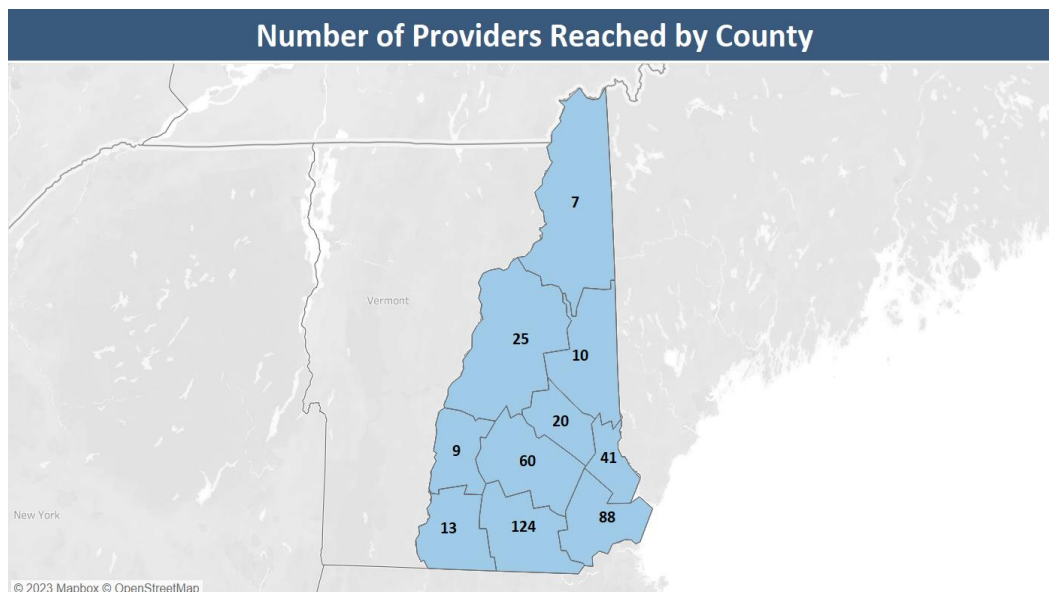

590 Child Care Programs in New Hampshire have Received American Rescue Plan Stabilization Support, Impacting up to 43,100 Children

ARP's historic investment provided New Hampshire with $47.7 million for their Child Care Stabilization program. The program has been critical to helping child care centers and family child care providers nationwide remain open or reopen, keeping child care workers on the payroll, and ensuring families have reliable options for high quality care while they work. Child care programs are mostly small businesses and are essential for families, communities, and the economy.

The ARP Child Care Stabilization program has been an unprecedented lifeline for the child care sector that helped parents return to work and spurred economic recovery. So far, more than 220,000 child care programs serving as many as 9.6 million children have received assistance across the country from this program.

In New Hampshire:

- Providers in 100% of New Hampshire counties have received funds.
- 535 child care centers that received stabilization payments most commonly used them to pay for personnel costs and keep programs staffed.
- 55 child care family homes that received stabilization payments most commonly used them to pay for personnel costs and keep programs staffed.
- On average, child care centers have received an award of $81,400 and family homes have received $53,200.

County total may not sum to the state total due to rounding.

ACF-901 data through June 30, 2022.

ADMINISTRATION FOR
CHILDREN & FAMILIES

 Office of Child Care

New Jersey ARP Child Care Stabilization Fact Sheet

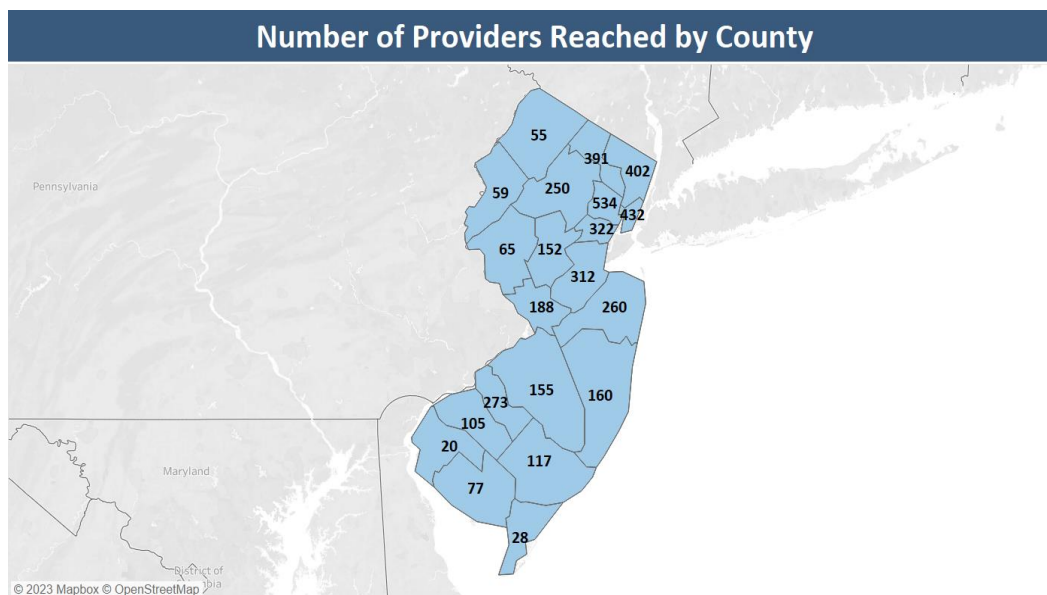

4,355 Child Care Programs in New Jersey have Received American Rescue Plan Stabilization Support, Impacting up to 348,400 Children

ARP's historic investment provided New Jersey with $427.5 million for their Child Care Stabilization program. The program has been critical to helping child care centers and family child care providers nationwide remain open or reopen, keeping child care workers on the payroll, and ensuring families have reliable options for high quality care while they work. Child care programs are mostly small businesses and are essential for families, communities, and the economy.

The ARP Child Care Stabilization program has been an unprecedented lifeline for the child care sector that helped parents return to work and spurred economic recovery. So far, more than 220,000 child care programs serving as many as 9.6 million children have received assistance across the country from this program.

In New Jersey:

- Providers in 100% of New Jersey counties have received funds.
- 3,510 child care centers that received stabilization payments most commonly used them to pay for personnel costs and keep programs staffed.
- 845 child care family homes that received stabilization payments most commonly used them to pay for personnel costs and keep programs staffed.

County total may not sum to the state total due to rounding.
ACF-901 data through December 31, 2022.

New Mexico ARP Child Care Stabilization Fact Sheet

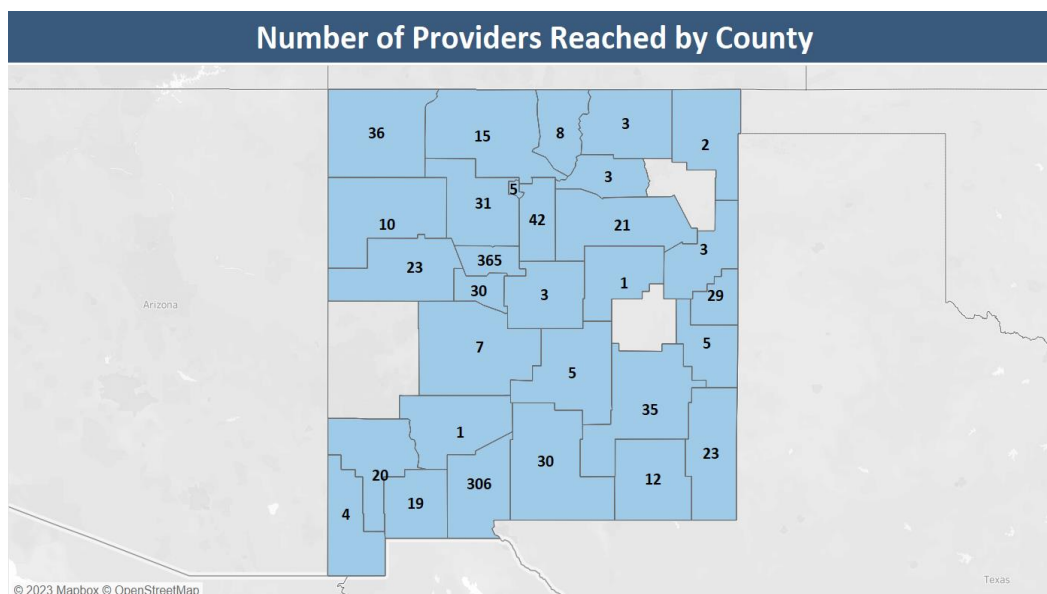

1,095 Child Care Programs in New Mexico have Received American Rescue Plan Stabilization Support, Impacting up to 51,600 Children

ARP's historic investment provided New Mexico with $197.1 million for their Child Care Stabilization program. The program has been critical to helping child care centers and family child care providers nationwide remain open or reopen, keeping child care workers on the payroll, and ensuring families have reliable options for high quality care while they work. Child care programs are mostly small businesses and are essential for families, communities, and the economy.

The ARP Child Care Stabilization program has been an unprecedented lifeline for the child care sector that helped parents return to work and spurred economic recovery. So far, more than 220,000 child care programs serving as many as 9.6 million children have received assistance across the country from this program.

In New Mexico:

- Providers in 91% of New Mexico counties have received funds.
- 545 child care centers that received stabilization payments most commonly used them to pay for personnel costs and keep programs staffed.
- 550 child care family homes that received stabilization payments most commonly used them to pay for rent and mortgage payments, typically their largest operating expense.
- On average, child care centers have received an award of $276,900 and family homes have received $16,000.

County total may not sum to the state total due to rounding.

ACF-901 data through December 31, 2022.

ADMINISTRATION FOR
CHILDREN & FAMILIES

 Office of Child Care

New York ARP Child Care Stabilization Fact Sheet

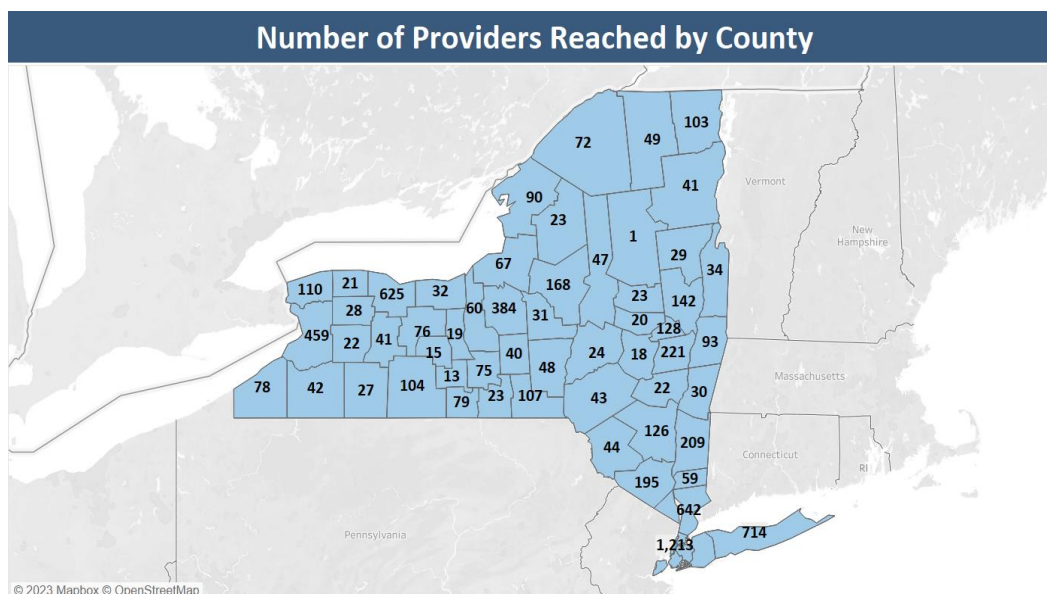

15,465 Child Care Programs in New York have Received American Rescue Plan Stabilization Support, Impacting up to 676,100 Children

ARP's historic investment provided New York with $1.1 billion for their Child Care Stabilization program. The program has been critical to helping child care centers and family child care providers nationwide remain open or reopen, keeping child care workers on the payroll, and ensuring families have reliable options for high quality care while they work. Child care programs are mostly small businesses and are essential for families, communities, and the economy.

The ARP Child Care Stabilization program has been an unprecedented lifeline for the child care sector that helped parents return to work and spurred economic recovery. So far, more than 220,000 child care programs serving as many as 9.6 million children have received assistance across the country from this program.

In New York:

- Providers in 100% of New York counties have received funds.
- 6,100 child care centers that received stabilization payments most commonly used them to pay for personnel costs and keep programs staffed.
- 9,365 child care family homes that received stabilization payments most commonly used them to pay for rent and mortgage payments, typically their largest operating expense.
- On average, child care centers have received an award of $106,700 and family homes have received $49,400.

County total may not sum to the state total due to rounding.

ACF-901 data through December 31, 2022.

ADMINISTRATION FOR
CHILDREN & FAMILIES

 Office of Child Care

4,380 Child Care Programs in North Carolina have Received American Rescue Plan Stabilization Support, Impacting up to 383,100 Children

The ARP Child Care Stabilization program has been an unprecedented lifeline for the child care sector that helped parents return to work and spurred economic recovery. So far, more than 220,000 child care programs serving as many as 9.6 million children have received assistance across the country from this program.

- Providers in 99% of North Carolina counties have received funds.
- 3,180 child care centers that received stabilization payments most commonly used them to pay for personnel costs and keep programs staffed.
- 1,205 child care family homes that received stabilization payments most commonly used them to pay for rent and mortgage payments, typically their largest operating expense.
- On average, child care centers have received an award of $218,700 and family homes have received $39,200.

North Dakota ARP Child Care Stabilization Fact Sheet

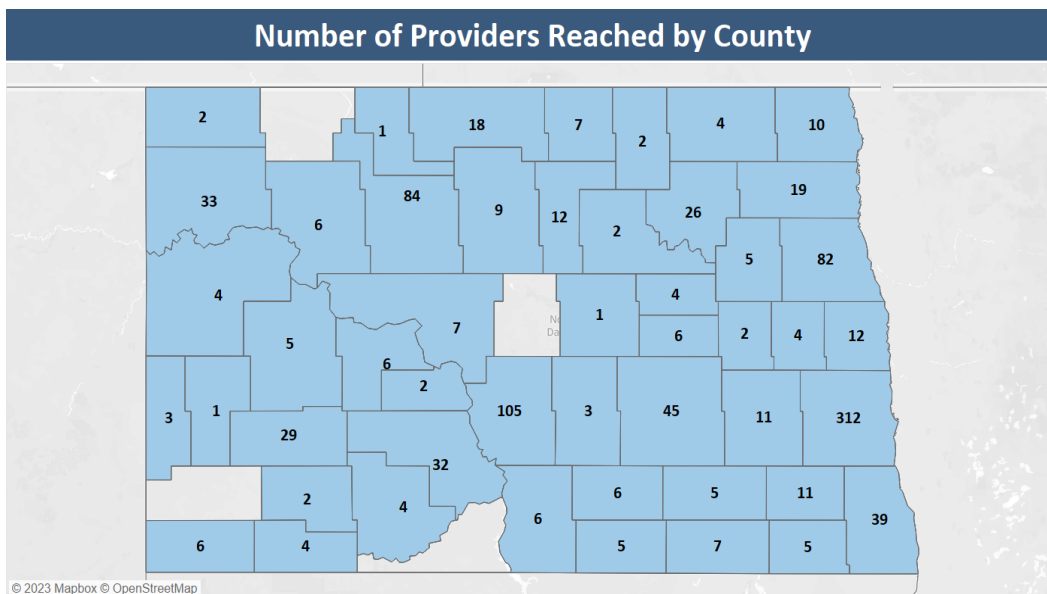

1,015 Child Care Programs in North Dakota have Received American Rescue Plan Stabilization Support, Impacting up to 35,800 Children

ARP's historic investment provided North Dakota with $46.7 million for their Child Care Stabilization program. The program has been critical to helping child care centers and family child care providers nationwide remain open or reopen, keeping child care workers on the payroll, and ensuring families have reliable options for high quality care while they work. Child care programs are mostly small businesses and are essential for families, communities, and the economy.

The ARP Child Care Stabilization program has been an unprecedented lifeline for the child care sector that helped parents return to work and spurred economic recovery. So far, more than 220,000 child care programs serving as many as 9.6 million children have received assistance across the country from this program.

In North Dakota:

- Providers in 92% of North Dakota counties have received funds.
- 420 child care centers that received stabilization payments most commonly used them to pay for personnel costs and keep programs staffed.
- 595 child care family homes that received stabilization payments most commonly used them to pay for rent and mortgage payments, typically their largest operating expense.
- On average, child care centers have received an award of $58,900 and family homes have received $20,100.

County total may not sum to the state total due to rounding.

ACF-901 data through December 31, 2022.

ADMINISTRATION FOR
CHILDREN & FAMILIES

Office of Child Care

Ohio ARP Child Care Stabilization Fact Sheet

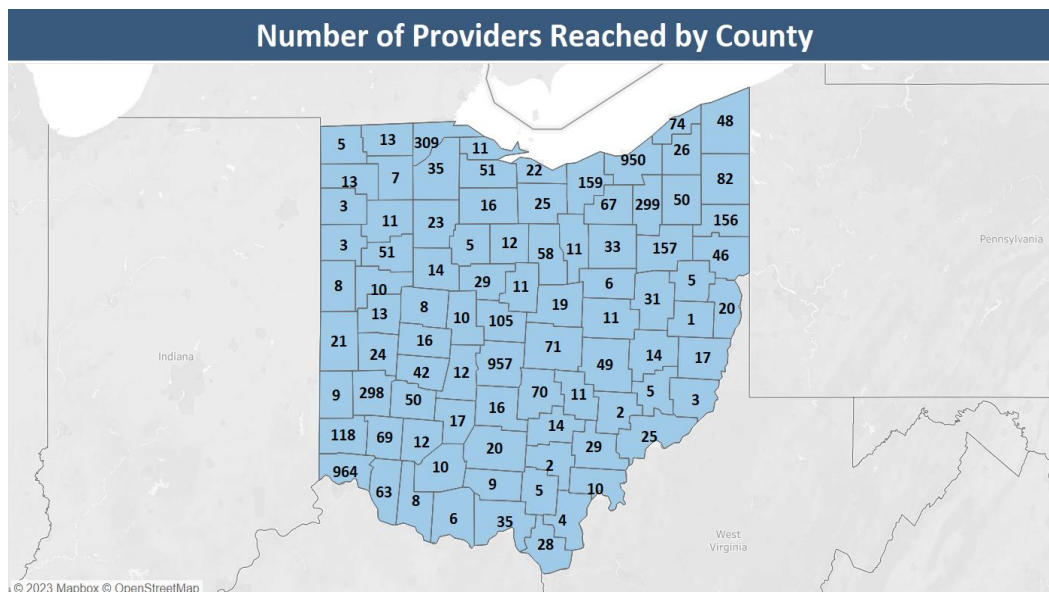

6,265 Child Care Programs in Ohio have Received American Rescue Plan Stabilization Support, Impacting up to 399,300 Children

ARP's historic investment provided Ohio with $799.8 million for their Child Care Stabilization program. The program has been critical to helping child care centers and family child care providers nationwide remain open or reopen, keeping child care workers on the payroll, and ensuring families have reliable options for high quality care while they work. Child care programs are mostly small businesses and are essential for families, communities, and the economy.

The ARP Child Care Stabilization program has been an unprecedented lifeline for the child care sector that helped parents return to work and spurred economic recovery. So far, more than 220,000 child care programs serving as many as 9.6 million children have received assistance across the country from this program.

In Ohio:

- Providers in 100% of Ohio counties have received funds.
- 3,995 child care centers that received stabilization payments most commonly used them to pay for personnel costs and keep programs staffed.
- 2,260 child care family homes that received stabilization payments most commonly used them to pay for personnel costs and keep programs staffed.
- On average, child care centers have received an award of $189,500 and family homes have received $33,600.

County total may not sum to the state total due to rounding.

OH also provided grants to other types of child care providers that met CCDF and ARP eligibility requirements.
ACF-901 data through December 31, 2022.

ADMINISTRATION FOR
CHILDREN & FAMILIES

 Office of Child Care

Oklahoma ARP Child Care Stabilization Fact Sheet

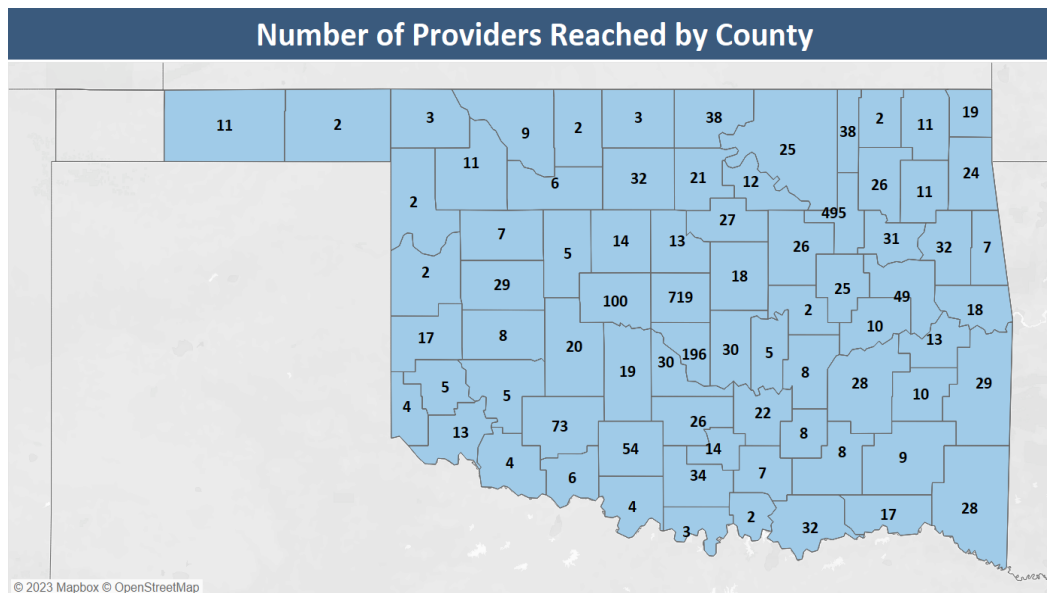

2,625 Child Care Programs in Oklahoma have Received American Rescue Plan Stabilization Support, Impacting up to 107,200 Children

ARP's historic investment provided Oklahoma with $362.9 million for their Child Care Stabilization program. The program has been critical to helping child care centers and family child care providers nationwide remain open or reopen, keeping child care workers on the payroll, and ensuring families have reliable options for high quality care while they work. Child care programs are mostly small businesses and are essential for families, communities, and the economy.

The ARP Child Care Stabilization program has been an unprecedented lifeline for the child care sector that helped parents return to work and spurred economic recovery. So far, more than 220,000 child care programs serving as many as 9.6 million children have received assistance across the country from this program.

In Oklahoma:

- Providers in 99% of Oklahoma counties have received funds.
- 1,250 child care centers that received stabilization payments most commonly used them to pay for personnel costs and keep programs staffed.
- 1,380 child care family homes that received stabilization payments most commonly used them to pay for rent and mortgage payments, typically their largest operating expense.

Oregon ARP Child Care Stabilization Fact Sheet

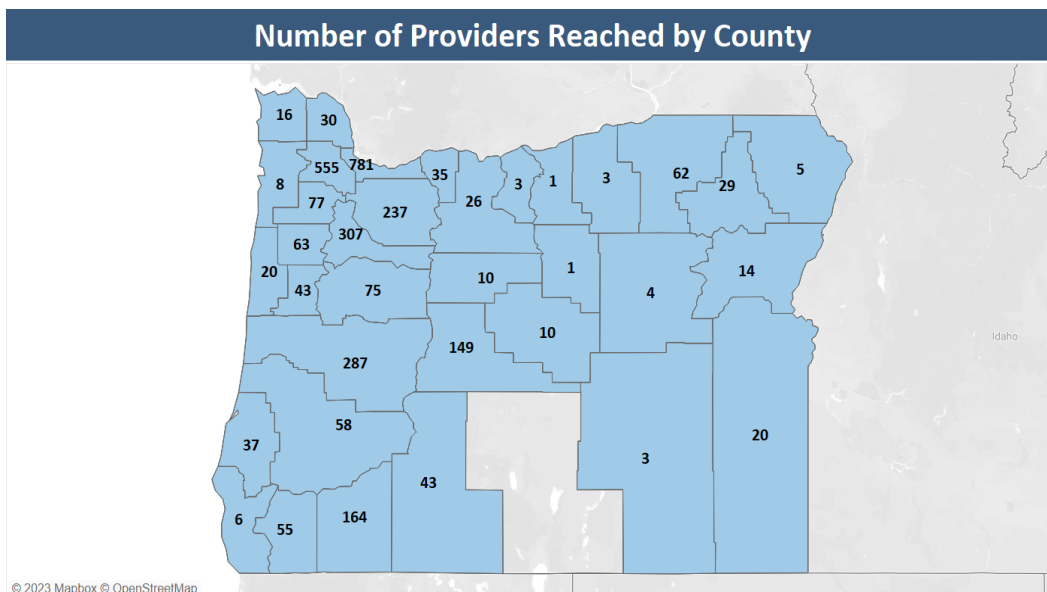

3,235 Child Care Programs in Oregon have Received American Rescue Plan Stabilization Support, Impacting up to 82,400 Children

ARP's historic investment provided Oregon with $248.9 million for their Child Care Stabilization program. The program has been critical to helping child care centers and family child care providers nationwide remain open or reopen, keeping child care workers on the payroll, and ensuring families have reliable options for high quality care while they work. Child care programs are mostly small businesses and are essential for families, communities, and the economy.

The ARP Child Care Stabilization program has been an unprecedented lifeline for the child care sector that helped parents return to work and spurred economic recovery. So far, more than 220,000 child care programs serving as many as 9.6 million children have received assistance across the country from this program.

In Oregon:

- Providers in 97% of Oregon counties have received funds.
- 920 child care centers that received stabilization payments most commonly used them to pay for rent and mortgage payments to help ensure their doors stayed open.
- 2,185 child care family homes that received stabilization payments most commonly used them to pay for rent and mortgage payments, typically their largest operating expense.
- On average, child care centers have received an award of $174,800 and family homes have received $33,200.

County total may not sum to the state total due to rounding.

OR also provided grants to other types of child care providers that met CCDF and ARP eligibility requirements.
ACF-901 data through December 31, 2022.

ADMINISTRATION FOR
CHILDREN & FAMILIES

Office of Child Care

Pennsylvania ARP Child Care Stabilization Fact Sheet

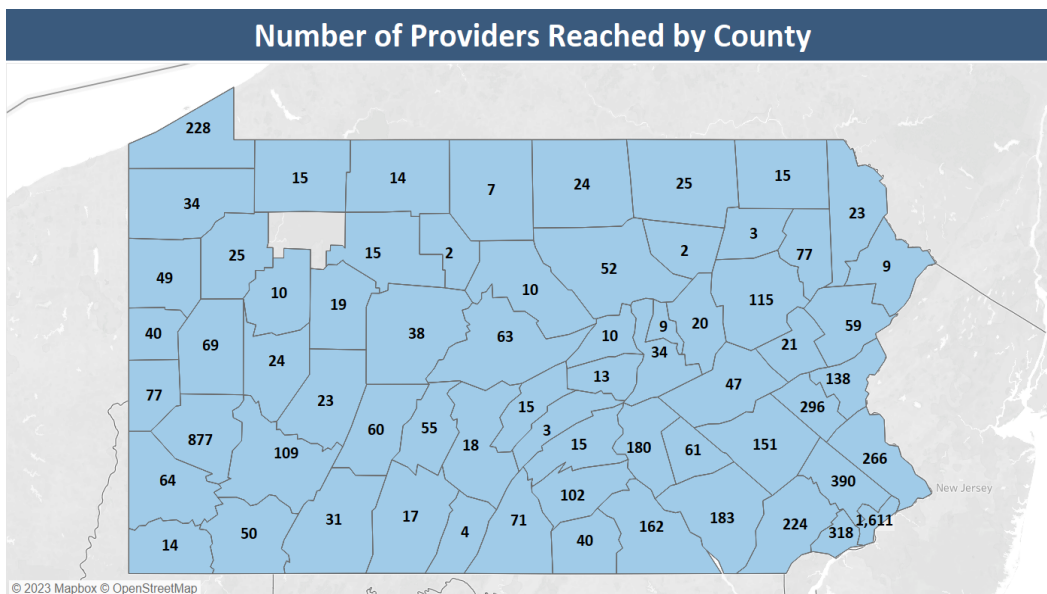

6,845 Child Care Programs in Pennsylvania have Received American Rescue Plan Stabilization Support, Impacting up to 365,500 Children

ARP's historic investment provided Pennsylvania with $728.9 million for their Child Care Stabilization program. The program has been critical to helping child care centers and family child care providers nationwide remain open or reopen, keeping child care workers on the payroll, and ensuring families have reliable options for high quality care while they work. Child care programs are mostly small businesses and are essential for families, communities, and the economy.

The ARP Child Care Stabilization program has been an unprecedented lifeline for the child care sector that helped parents return to work and spurred economic recovery. So far, more than 220,000 child care programs serving as many as 9.6 million children have received assistance across the country from this program.

In Pennsylvania:

- Providers in 99% of Pennsylvania counties have received funds.
- 4,205 child care centers that received stabilization payments most commonly used them to pay for personnel costs and keep programs staffed.
- 2,645 child care family homes that received stabilization payments most commonly used them to pay for rent and mortgage payments, typically their largest operating expense.
- On average, child care centers have received an award of $142,500 and family homes have received $11,600.

County total may not sum to the state total due to rounding.

PA's center and family child care data included a small number of duplicate counts, so do not sum to the correct total.

ACF-901 data through December 31, 2022.

Rhode Island ARP Child Care Stabilization Fact Sheet

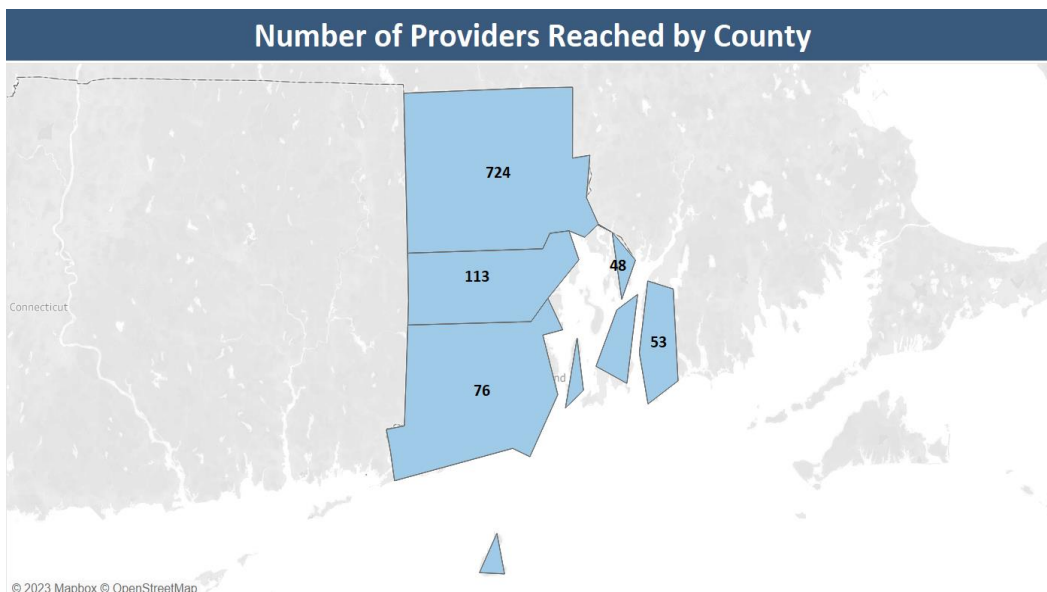

1,015 Child Care Programs in Rhode Island have Received American Rescue Plan Stabilization Support, Impacting up to 51,700 Children

ARP's historic investment provided Rhode Island with $57.3 million for their Child Care Stabilization program. The program has been critical to helping child care centers and family child care providers nationwide remain open or reopen, keeping child care workers on the payroll, and ensuring families have reliable options for high quality care while they work. Child care programs are mostly small businesses and are essential for families, communities, and the economy.

The ARP Child Care Stabilization program has been an unprecedented lifeline for the child care sector that helped parents return to work and spurred economic recovery. So far, more than 220,000 child care programs serving as many as 9.6 million children have received assistance across the country from this program.

In Rhode Island:

- Providers in 100% of Rhode Island counties have received funds.
- 650 child care centers that received stabilization payments most commonly used them to pay for personnel costs and keep programs staffed.
- 365 child care family homes that received stabilization payments most commonly used them to pay for rent and mortgage payments, typically their largest operating expense.
- On average, child care centers have received an award of $76,600 and family homes have received $12,100.

County total may not sum to the state total due to rounding.

ACF-901 data through December 31, 2022.

ADMINISTRATION FOR
CHILDREN & FAMILIES

 Office of Child Care

South Carolina ARP Child Care Stabilization Fact Sheet

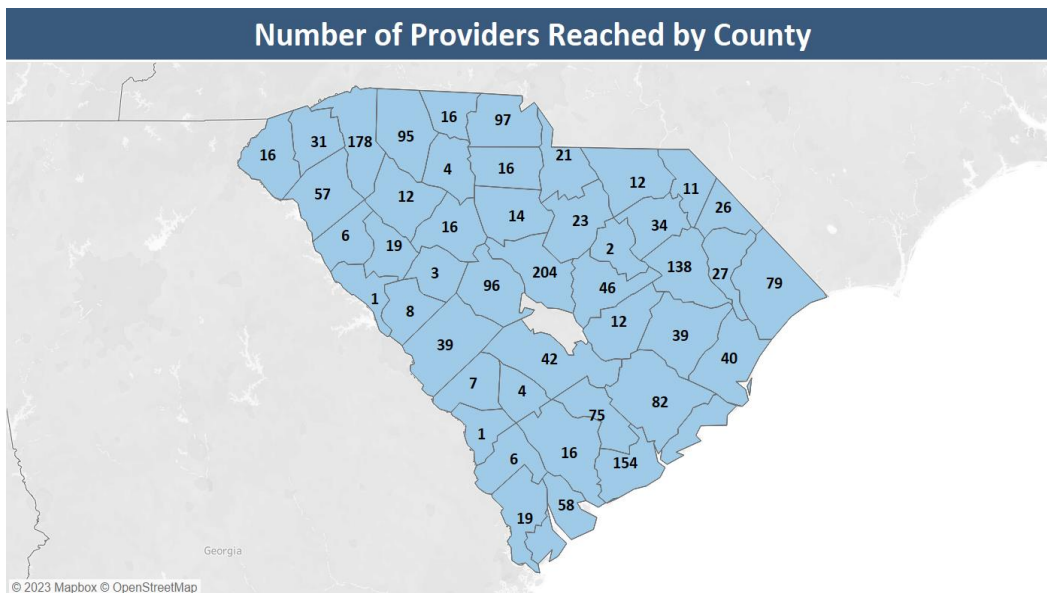

1,900 Child Care Programs in South Carolina have Received American Rescue Plan Stabilization Support, Impacting up to 151,800 Children

ARP's historic investment provided South Carolina with $436.6 million for their Child Care Stabilization program. The program has been critical to helping child care centers and family child care providers nationwide remain open or reopen, keeping child care workers on the payroll, and ensuring families have reliable options for high quality care while they work. Child care programs are mostly small businesses and are essential for families, communities, and the economy.

The ARP Child Care Stabilization program has been an unprecedented lifeline for the child care sector that helped parents return to work and spurred economic recovery. So far, more than 220,000 child care programs serving as many as 9.6 million children have received assistance across the country from this program.

In South Carolina:

- Providers in 98% of South Carolina counties have received funds.
- 1,245 child care centers that received stabilization payments most commonly used them to pay for personnel costs and keep programs staffed.
- 660 child care family homes that received stabilization payments most commonly used them to pay for rent and mortgage payments, typically their largest operating expense.

County total may not sum to the state total due to rounding.

SC's center and family child care data does not sum to the correct total due to rounding.

ACF-901 data through December 31, 2022.

South Dakota ARP Child Care Stabilization Fact Sheet

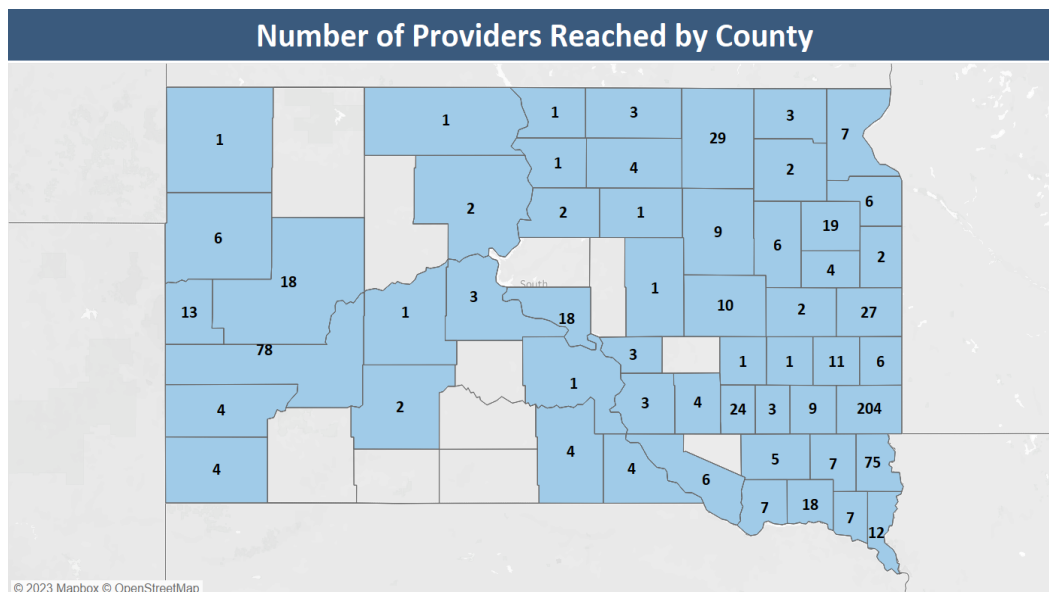

705 Child Care Programs in South Dakota have Received American Rescue Plan Stabilization Support, Impacting up to 42,500 Children

ARP's historic investment provided South Dakota with $61.9 million for their Child Care Stabilization program. The program has been critical to helping child care centers and family child care providers nationwide remain open or reopen, keeping child care workers on the payroll, and ensuring families have reliable options for high quality care while they work. Child care programs are mostly small businesses and are essential for families, communities, and the economy.

The ARP Child Care Stabilization program has been an unprecedented lifeline for the child care sector that helped parents return to work and spurred economic recovery. So far, more than 220,000 child care programs serving as many as 9.6 million children have received assistance across the country from this program.

In South Dakota:

- Providers in 83% of South Dakota counties have received funds.
- 365 child care centers that received stabilization payments most commonly used them to pay for personnel costs and keep programs staffed.
- 340 child care family homes that received stabilization payments most commonly used them to pay for rent and mortgage payments, typically their largest operating expense.
- On average, child care centers have received an award of $144,300 and family homes have received $23,400.

County total may not sum to the state total due to rounding.

ACF-901 data through December 31, 2022.

ADMINISTRATION FOR
CHILDREN & FAMILIES

Office of Child Care

Tennessee ARP Child Care Stabilization Fact Sheet

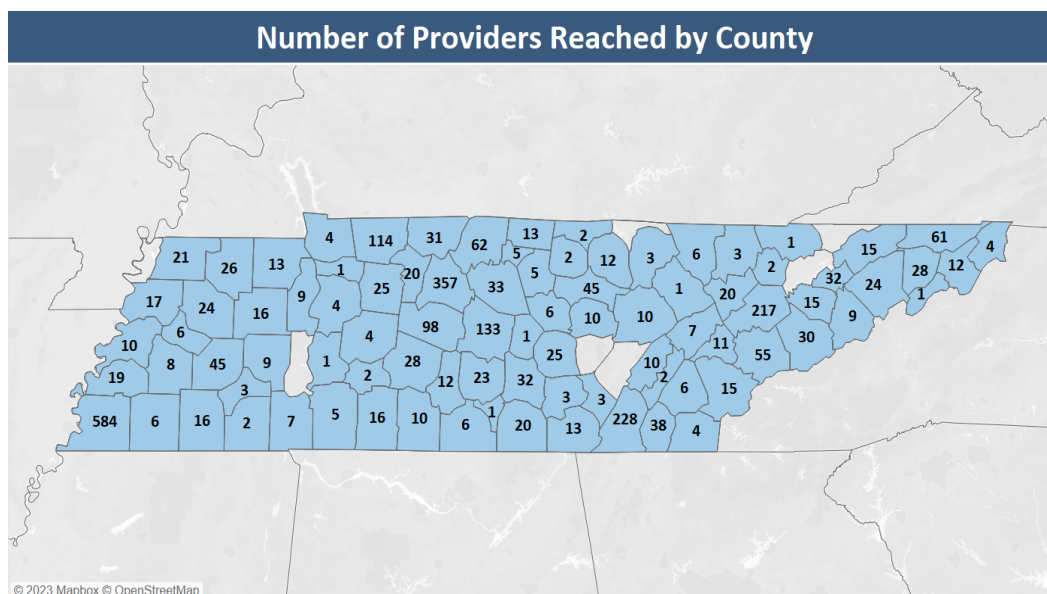

2,875 Child Care Programs in Tennessee have Received American Rescue Plan Stabilization Support, Impacting up to 215,800 Children

ARP's historic investment provided Tennessee with $554.4 million for their Child Care Stabilization program. The program has been critical to helping child care centers and family child care providers nationwide remain open or reopen, keeping child care workers on the payroll, and ensuring families have reliable options for high quality care while they work. Child care programs are mostly small businesses and are essential for families, communities, and the economy.

The ARP Child Care Stabilization program has been an unprecedented lifeline for the child care sector that helped parents return to work and spurred economic recovery. So far, more than 220,000 child care programs serving as many as 9.6 million children have received assistance across the country from this program.

In Tennessee:

- Providers in 93% of Tennessee counties have received funds.
- 2,550 child care centers that received stabilization payments most commonly used them to pay for personnel costs and keep programs staffed.
- 445 child care family homes that received stabilization payments most commonly used them to pay for rent and mortgage payments, typically their largest operating expense.
- On average, child care centers have received an award of $193,800 and family homes have received $21,200.

County total may not sum to the state total due to rounding.

TN's center and family child care data included a small number of duplicate counts, so do not sum to the correct total.

ACF-901 data through December 31, 2022.

Texas ARP Child Care Stabilization Fact Sheet

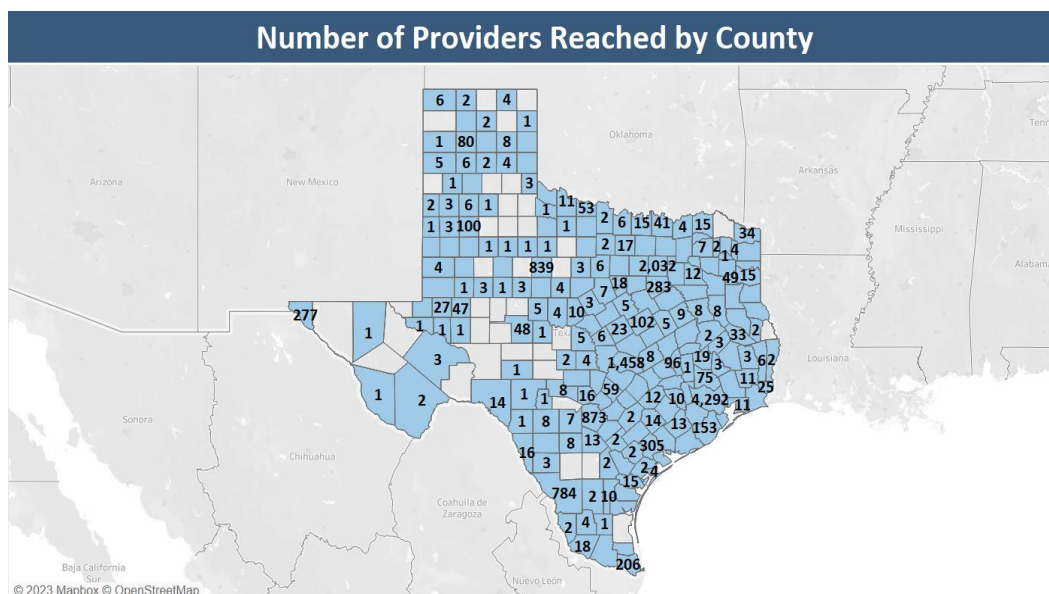

10,790 Child Care Programs in Texas have Received American Rescue Plan Stabilization Support, Impacting up to 836,000 Children

ARP's historic investment provided Texas with $2.7 billion for their Child Care Stabilization program. The program has been critical to helping child care centers and family child care providers nationwide remain open or reopen, keeping child care workers on the payroll, and ensuring families have reliable options for high quality care while they work. Child care programs are mostly small businesses and are essential for families, communities, and the economy.

The ARP Child Care Stabilization program has been an unprecedented lifeline for the child care sector that helped parents return to work and spurred economic recovery. So far, more than 220,000 child care programs serving as many as 9.6 million children have received assistance across the country from this program.

In Texas:

- Providers in 85% of Texas counties have received funds.
- 7,735 child care centers that received stabilization payments most commonly used them to pay for personnel costs and keep programs staffed.
- 3,060 child care family homes that received stabilization payments most commonly used them to pay for rent and mortgage payments, typically their largest operating expense.
- On average, child care centers have received an award of $303,500 and family homes have received $24,900.

County total may not sum to the state total due to rounding.

TX's center and family child care data does not sum to the correct total due to rounding.

ACF-901 data through December 31, 2022.

Utah ARP Child Care Stabilization Fact Sheet

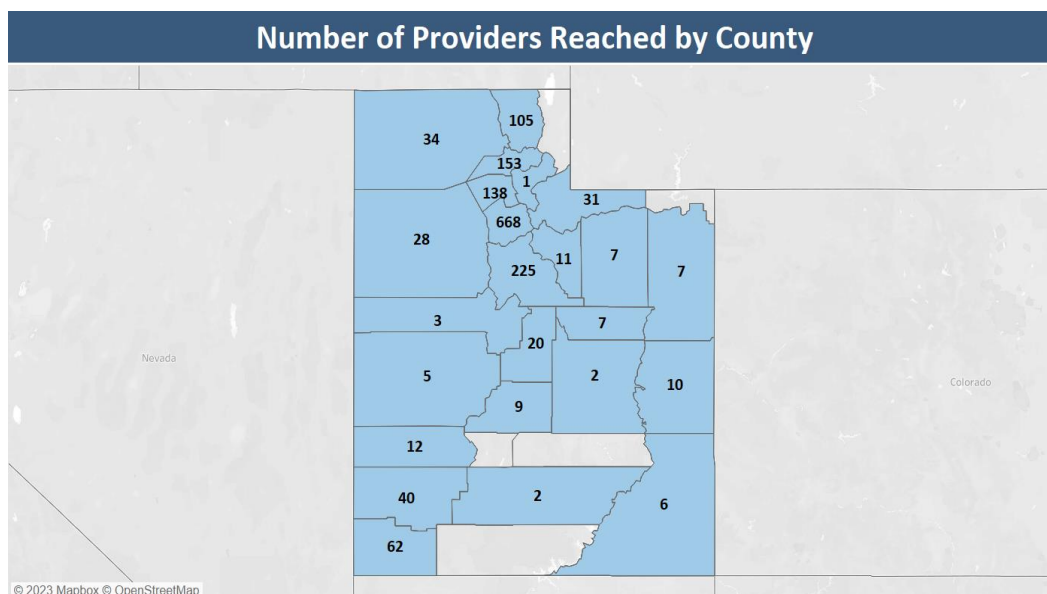

1,585 Child Care Programs in Utah have Received American Rescue Plan Stabilization Support, Impacting up to 85,200 Children

ARP's historic investment provided Utah with $261.4 million for their Child Care Stabilization program. The program has been critical to helping child care centers and family child care providers nationwide remain open or reopen, keeping child care workers on the payroll, and ensuring families have reliable options for high quality care while they work. Child care programs are mostly small businesses and are essential for families, communities, and the economy.

The ARP Child Care Stabilization program has been an unprecedented lifeline for the child care sector that helped parents return to work and spurred economic recovery. So far, more than 220,000 child care programs serving as many as 9.6 million children have received assistance across the country from this program.

In Utah:

- Providers in 83% of Utah counties have received funds.
- 705 child care centers that received stabilization payments most commonly used them to pay for personnel costs and keep programs staffed.
- 880 child care family homes that received stabilization payments most commonly used them to pay for rent and mortgage payments, typically their largest operating expense.
- On average, child care centers have received an award of $207,000 and family homes have received $29,000.

County total may not sum to the state total due to rounding.

ACF-901 data through December 31, 2022.

ADMINISTRATION FOR
CHILDREN & FAMILIES

 Office of Child Care

Vermont ARP Child Care Stabilization Fact Sheet

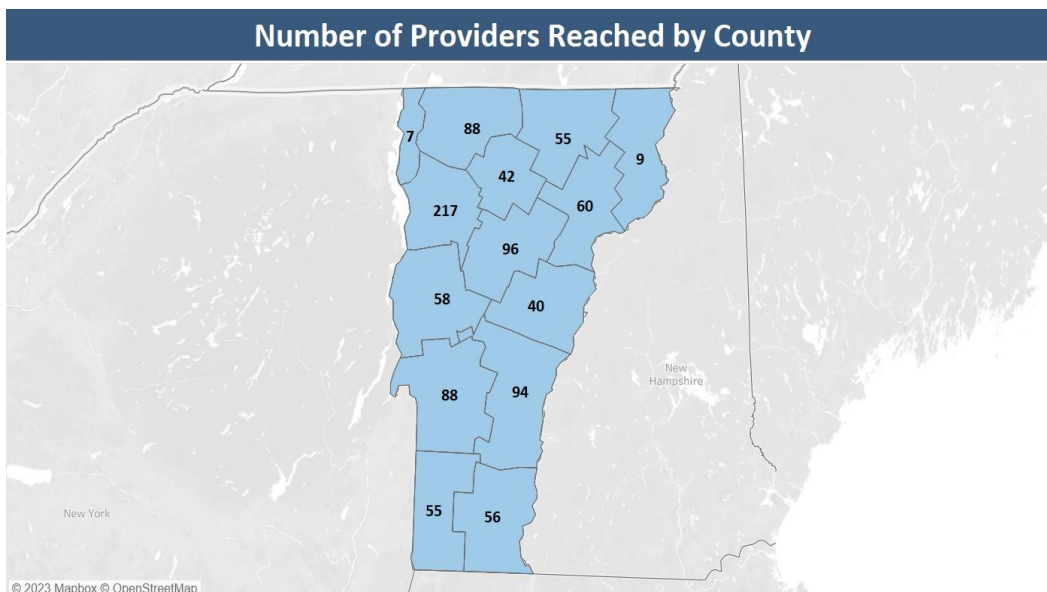

965 Child Care Programs in Vermont have Received American Rescue Plan Stabilization Support, Impacting up to 29,700 Children

ARP's historic investment provided Vermont with $29.3 million for their Child Care Stabilization program. The program has been critical to helping child care centers and family child care providers nationwide remain open or reopen, keeping child care workers on the payroll, and ensuring families have reliable options for high quality care while they work. Child care programs are mostly small businesses and are essential for families, communities, and the economy.

The ARP Child Care Stabilization program has been an unprecedented lifeline for the child care sector that helped parents return to work and spurred economic recovery. So far, more than 220,000 child care programs serving as many as 9.6 million children have received assistance across the country from this program.

In Vermont:

- Providers in 100% of Vermont counties have received funds.
- 550 child care centers that received stabilization payments most commonly used them to pay for personnel costs and keep programs staffed.
- 415 child care family homes that received stabilization payments most commonly used them to pay for rent and mortgage payments, typically their largest operating expense.
- On average, child care centers have received an award of $38,200 and family homes have received $10,800.

County total may not sum to the state total due to rounding.

ACF-901 data through December 31, 2022.

ADMINISTRATION FOR
CHILDREN & FAMILIES

 Office of Child Care

Virginia ARP Child Care Stabilization Fact Sheet

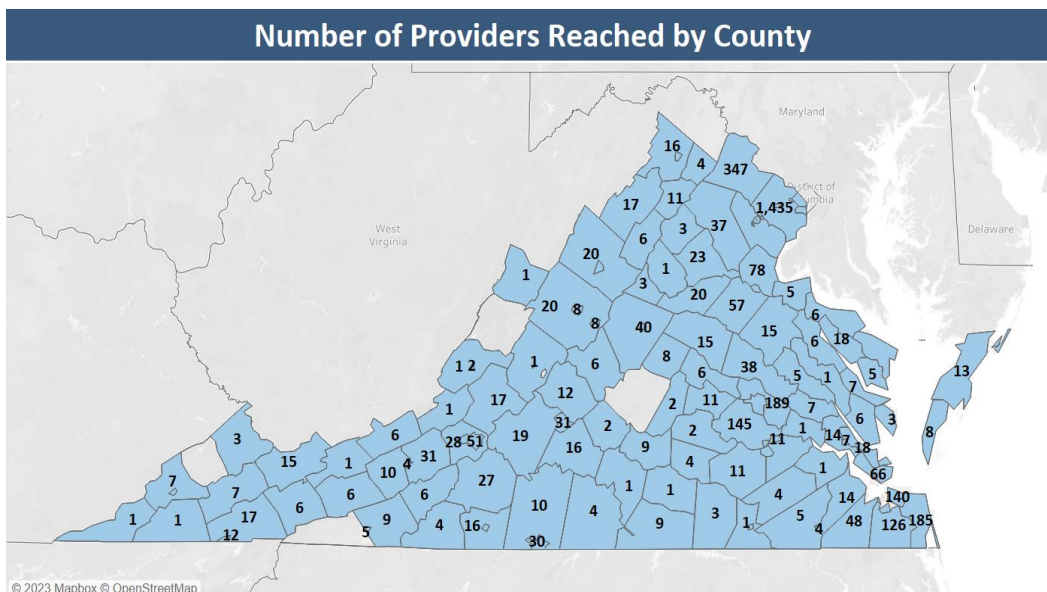

4,975 Child Care Programs in Virginia have Received American Rescue Plan Stabilization Support, Impacting up to 317,500 Children

ARP's historic investment provided Virginia with $488.6 million for their Child Care Stabilization program. The program has been critical to helping child care centers and family child care providers nationwide remain open or reopen, keeping child care workers on the payroll, and ensuring families have reliable options for high quality care while they work. Child care programs are mostly small businesses and are essential for families, communities, and the economy.

The ARP Child Care Stabilization program has been an unprecedented lifeline for the child care sector that helped parents return to work and spurred economic recovery. So far, more than 220,000 child care programs serving as many as 9.6 million children have received assistance across the country from this program.

In Virginia:

- Providers in 96% of Virginia counties have received funds.
- 2,780 child care centers that received stabilization payments most commonly used them to pay for personnel costs and keep programs staffed.
- 2,190 child care family homes that received stabilization payments most commonly used them to pay for rent and mortgage payments, typically their largest operating expense.
- On average, child care centers have received an award of $163,900 and family homes have received $20,800.

County total may not sum to the state total due to rounding.

VA's center and family child care data does not sum to the correct total due to rounding.

ACF-901 data through December 31, 2022.

ADMINISTRATION FOR
CHILDREN & FAMILIES

 Office of Child Care

Washington ARP Child Care Stabilization Fact Sheet

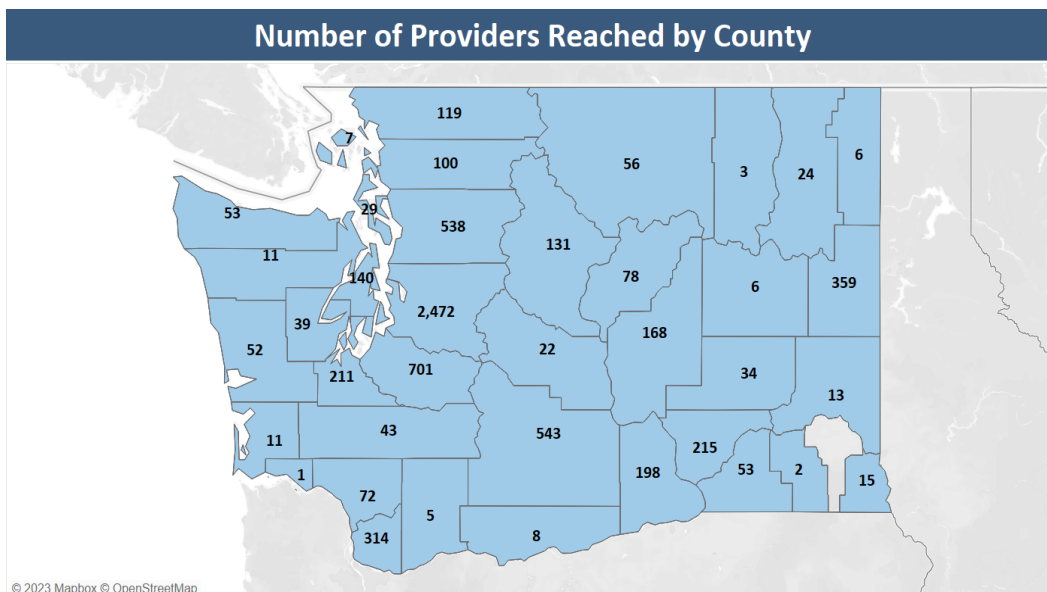

6,850 Child Care Programs in Washington have Received American Rescue Plan Stabilization Support, Impacting up to 183,700 Children

ARP's historic investment provided Washington with $389.6 million for their Child Care Stabilization program. The program has been critical to helping child care centers and family child care providers nationwide remain open or reopen, keeping child care workers on the payroll, and ensuring families have reliable options for high quality care while they work. Child care programs are mostly small businesses and are essential for families, communities, and the economy.

The ARP Child Care Stabilization program has been an unprecedented lifeline for the child care sector that helped parents return to work and spurred economic recovery. So far, more than 220,000 child care programs serving as many as 9.6 million children have received assistance across the country from this program.

In Washington:

- Providers in 97% of Washington counties have received funds.
- 2,150 child care centers that received stabilization payments most commonly used them to pay for personnel costs and keep programs staffed.
- 3,545 child care family homes that received stabilization payments most commonly used them to pay for rent and mortgage payments, typically their largest operating expense.
- On average, child care centers have received an award of $88,300 and family homes have received $48,200.

County total may not sum to the state total due to rounding.

WA also provided grants to other types of child care providers that met CCDF and ARP eligibility requirements.
ACF-901 data through December 31, 2022.

ADMINISTRATION FOR
CHILDREN & FAMILIES

 Office of Child Care

West Virginia ARP Child Care Stabilization Fact Sheet

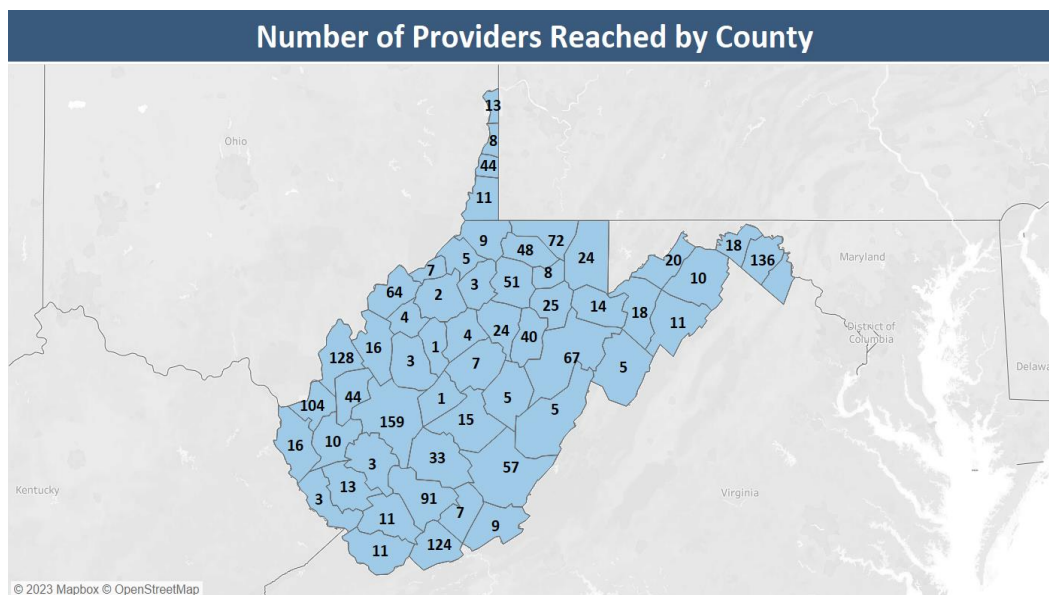

1,570 Child Care Programs in West Virginia have Received American Rescue Plan Stabilization Support, Impacting up to 60,400 Children

ARP's historic investment provided West Virginia with $160.4 million for their Child Care Stabilization program. The program has been critical to helping child care centers and family child care providers nationwide remain open or reopen, keeping child care workers on the payroll, and ensuring families have reliable options for high quality care while they work. Child care programs are mostly small businesses and are essential for families, communities, and the economy.

The ARP Child Care Stabilization program has been an unprecedented lifeline for the child care sector that helped parents return to work and spurred economic recovery. So far, more than 220,000 child care programs serving as many as 9.6 million children have received assistance across the country from this program.

In West Virginia:

- Providers in 100% of West Virginia counties have received funds.
- 645 child care centers that received stabilization payments most commonly used them to pay for personnel costs and keep programs staffed.
- 925 child care family homes that received stabilization payments most commonly used them to pay for PPE to ensure safe environments for children and staff.

County total may not sum to the state total due to rounding.
ACF-901 data through December 31, 2022.

Wisconsin ARP Child Care Stabilization Fact Sheet

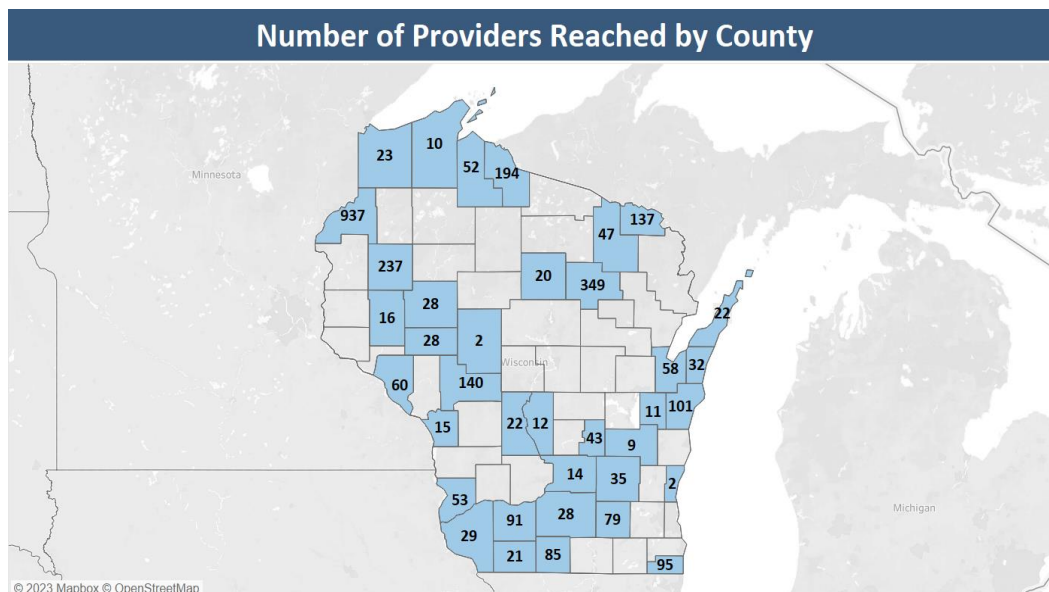

7,785 Child Care Programs in Wisconsin have Received American Rescue Plan Stabilization Support, Impacting up to 322,600 Children

ARP's historic investment provided Wisconsin with $357.0 million for their Child Care Stabilization program. The program has been critical to helping child care centers and family child care providers nationwide remain open or reopen, keeping child care workers on the payroll, and ensuring families have reliable options for high quality care while they work. Child care programs are mostly small businesses and are essential for families, communities, and the economy.

The ARP Child Care Stabilization program has been an unprecedented lifeline for the child care sector that helped parents return to work and spurred economic recovery. So far, more than 220,000 child care programs serving as many as 9.6 million children have received assistance across the country from this program.

In Wisconsin:

- Providers in 51% of Wisconsin counties have received funds.
- 4,370 child care centers that received stabilization payments most commonly used them to pay for rent and mortgage payments to help ensure their doors stayed open.
- 3,415 child care family homes that received stabilization payments most commonly used them to pay for rent and mortgage payments, typically their largest operating expense.
- On average, child care centers have received an award of $54,400 and family homes have received $7,900.

County total may not sum to the state total due to rounding.

WI's stabilization awards went to more counties than shown on this map. Data is forthcoming.

ACF-901 data through December 31, 2022.

ADMINISTRATION FOR
CHILDREN & FAMILIES

 Office of Child Care

Wyoming ARP Child Care Stabilization Fact Sheet

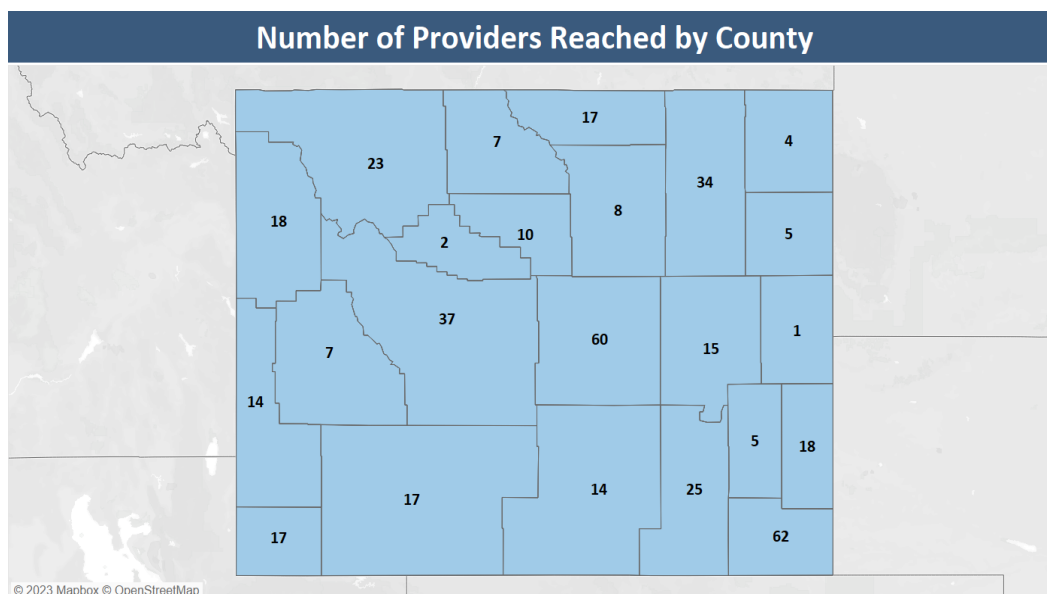

420 Child Care Programs in Wyoming have Received American Rescue Plan Stabilization Support, Impacting up to 15,100 Children

ARP's historic investment provided Wyoming with $29.3 million for their Child Care Stabilization program. The program has been critical to helping child care centers and family child care providers nationwide remain open or reopen, keeping child care workers on the payroll, and ensuring families have reliable options for high quality care while they work. Child care programs are mostly small businesses and are essential for families, communities, and the economy.

The ARP Child Care Stabilization program has been an unprecedented lifeline for the child care sector that helped parents return to work and spurred economic recovery. So far, more than 220,000 child care programs serving as many as 9.6 million children have received assistance across the country from this program.

In Wyoming:

- Providers in 100% of Wyoming counties have received funds.
- 300 child care centers that received stabilization payments most commonly used them to pay for personnel costs and keep programs staffed.
- 125 child care family homes that received stabilization payments most commonly used them to pay for personnel costs and keep programs staffed.
- On average, child care centers have received an award of $87,100 and family homes have received $14,700.

County total may not sum to the state total due to rounding.

WY's center and family child care data included a small number of duplicate counts, so do not sum to the correct total.

ACF-901 data through December 31, 2022.

ADMINISTRATION FOR
CHILDREN & FAMILIES

Office of Child Care

Territories ARP Child Care Stabilization Fact Sheet

895 Child Care Programs across Territories have Received American Rescue Plan Stabilization Support, Impacting up to 21,400 Children

ARP's historic investment provided American Samoa, Guam, the Northern Mariana Islands, Puerto Rico, and the Virgin Islands with a total of $308.7 million for their Child Care Stabilization programs. The program has been critical to helping child care centers and family child care providers nationwide remain open or reopen, keeping child care workers on the payroll, and ensuring families have reliable options for high quality care while they work. Child care programs are mostly small businesses and are essential for families, communities, and the economy.

The ARP Child Care Stabilization program has been an unprecedented lifeline for the child care sector that helped parents return to work and spurred economic recovery. So far, more than 220,000 child care programs serving as many as 9.6 million children have received assistance across the country from this program.

In the Territories:

- Providers in Guam, the Northern Mariana Islands, Puerto Rico, and the Virgin Islands have all begun receiving stabilization funds.
- Stabilization payments are expected to continue into 2023.

American Samoa

Total Allocation: $30.5 million

Additional Data Forthcoming

Guam

Total Allocation: $44 million

Providers Reached: 115

Children Impacted: 9,900

Northern Mariana Islands

Total Allocation: $22.3 million

Providers Reached: 25

Children Impacted: 800

Puerto Rico

Total Allocation: $188.8 million

Providers Reached: 750

Children Impacted: 10,600

Virgin Islands

Total Allocation: $23.1 million

Providers Reached: 5

Children Impacted: 100

ACF-901 data through December 31, 2022.

ADMINISTRATION FOR
CHILDREN & FAMILIES

 Office of Child Care